9526. Ada Gale\belle Tanner

NAME: Ada Gale or Ada Belle TANNER.

Jessey "Jake" Blosser

Following taken from the Mowrey book: America "Mec" Tanner was born 3 September 1869, died 26 November 1940 and married Jessey "Jake" Blosser 24 August 1906 (born circa 1872, died 19 February 1941, son of John and Mary "Polly" (Hines) Blosser). Reverend Jerome R.S. Mowrey officiated the ceremony at Jesse Tanner Jr.'s house on Craig Ridge. Note that the spelling of the nickname is different in this reference and from the orginal entry for this person.
There continues to be some confusion in the Mowrey book on page 117 where the family of America is given. The children in the family are shown as follows: (copied from the book)
Children of America "Mec" Tanner, of Jesse Tanner Jr., of Jesse Tanner/Mary "Polly" (17) Carpenter
1. America Tanner Jr. (so-called) was born 15 December 1888 and died 18 July 1950 (adopted? by William and Sarah (Greathouse) Tucker).
2. Howard Tanner was born in September of 1891.
3. Fred Goff was born in September of 1893.
4. Hugh Mowrey was born 15 November 1897, died 23 February 1937 of consumption in the State Hospital at Spencer, Roane County, West Virginia and married 8 November 1925 Alice Tanner (born circa 1909, daughter of Claiborne and Mary (Allen) Tanner).
5. Dorsey Blosser
6. Raymond Blosser
As can be seen from the above there are apparently 4 children with a different last name than Americas husband, Jesse "Jake" Blosser, (assuming that "Jake" is a male, and America is a female). For that reason I am entering the names of the children as shown in the Mowrey book as it is quite possible that the first 4 children were taken in by America and "Jake", as has been previously pointed out that was not uncommon during that time and place!

9543. Amercian Tanner Blosser

Born either a Tanner or Blosser or adopted as a Blosser.

9544. Howard Tanner Blosser

Born either a Tanner or Blosser or adopted as a Blosser.

9545. Fred Tanner Blosser

Born either a Tanner or Blosser or adopted as a Blosser.

James Carpenter

James (18) Carpenter was born circa 1836 and married 1st 3 August 1857 in Roane County (then VA) Mary Nicholas (daughter of James and Sarah (Unknown) Nicholas) and 2nd 3 July 1866 in Roane County (then WV) Charlotte Starcher (daughter of Isaac and Mary (Tanner) Starcher) and resided in Roane County in 1870 and 1880. The Jesse Carpenter (his father?) found in the Braxton County Census of 1850 cannot be the same Jesse Carpenter (his uncle) who appears in the Jackson County census of 1850!

It might take me some time to go through this. I probably won't get to it until after April 15. I still have to do my taxes and as of Sunday am working with the police investigating a break in at my grandmother's house Zadia Dale Price Greathouse. She passed in 2010. I was planning to remodel her house just to have a place to stay in Richwood when want to visit there, but nope... the thieves and druggees aren't going to let us keep anything decent there. It has been broken into three times. It sets on the Greathouse homestead land settled there in 1906 when Ervin M. Greathouse, son of Isaac B. & Sarah Elizabeth Tanner Greathouse moved his family there to run his own lumber tram operation hauling logs to Cherry River Boom & Lumber Company.At first glance at Judith "Polly" Carpenter... I think Jesse Tanner's first wife Mary Elizabeth "Polly" Carpenter nickname may have been attached to Judith by some researchers who didn't catch that Jesse Tanner married Mary Elizabeth "Polly" about 1820. She appears to have died about the time her son William Tanner was born about 1836. She has been reported as daughter of Jesse & Sarah Jane Riffe Carpenter. Jesse next married Judith Carpenter daughter of Jeremiah & Elizabeth Hamm Carpenter about 1827. Their first child appears to have been Thomas Tanner if I recall. I have not seen any records in which Judith was named Polly.I can give you Judith's death record rather quickly, in which Jesse Tanner related her parents as J. [Jeremiah] and Elizabeth [Hamm] Carpenter. Her death register entry is on line 41.--Rick Greathouserick@greathouse.us mailto:rick@greathouse.us>

John S. Carpenter

NAME:
Middle name possbly Stanley.
Compare to John Samuel Carpenter-28453. Same spouse name.

See page 48 of the Mowrey 1997 book.
Per page 48: 10. John S. (17) was born about 1808, married? 1st Mary Judith Miller circa 1834- 2nd Sidney or Sudance Cowger 2 June 1849 and died after 1880 in Webster County, West Virginia.
Mary Judith Miller was a daughter of Samuel and Rebecca (Carpenter) Miller and John's niece. (NOTE!!!) She is often confused with Mary Carpenter, daughter of Jesse, and Judith Carpenter, daughter of Jeremiah, who were the first two wives of Jesse Tanner, because of their commonality in Christian and nicknames and misinformation in John A. House's never-the-less valuable book, Pioneers of Roane County, West Virginia, published at Spencer in 1906.

From notes on the other John S. in the Family ...
He was killed in 1835. Is it possible there were two Johns in this family? One died young? Was there a Mary Miller and a Judith Miller who may have been sisters?
John, married Judith "Polly" or Mary MILLER, d/o Samuel & Rebecca (CARPENTER) Miller, Rebecca, d/o Jeremiah & Elizabeth (Mann) Carpenter.
Judith born ca. Judith born ca.1830, married second to Jesse TANNER.
(Judith was a neice of John Carpenter.)
This Judith, or Mary Miller would have been nineteen years his junior,
She was listed as the first marriage of Harper Dist. Roane Co. WV. abt. 1814. As Polly Miller Carpenter, a widow and d/o Samuel. (By Hardesty's Roane Co. pg. 258)
Elijah Carpenter was born abt. 1828, so this could not be the son of John S. & Mary "Polly" Miller.
Do not know if this is a son of John S. Carpenter or not.

"Aunt Sis" Hicks was a widely known and respected midwife. Although she never had any children of her own, she and her husband, Armstrong, raised three boys; Davison Bumgarner, Bryan J. Reynolds and Cephas Elnathan Mowrey for all intents and purposes. All of these "outlaw boys" were either "kin or the same as kin". Armstrong Hicks was a local character noted for his peculiarities and wry sense of humor around Spencer. He was "of stalwart frame, full gray beard, homespun clothes and gum boots regardless the time of year or weather". He was asked if anything could be hotter in July than the rubber boots he was wearing one summer day as he sat on the courthouse steps. Normally prone to pondering such innane questions at great length, he quickly, laconicly, replied, "Yeh, Bub, my feet!"

Sarah Jane Grady

COMMENT:
In the Mowrey book, page 171, Vol. III the following is shown: James Carpenter, (born 17 May 1835, d: 14 Jan 1914) married Sarah Jane Grady (who was born 15 September 1837, died 29 July 1918),on 14 March 1853, James was the son of John S. and Mary Judith (Miller) Carpenter).
This entry does not match earlier records as shown above. It may be that the confusion as to exactly who or which James Carpenter married Rossana Coger, or Sarah Grady is shown in the first paragraph of these notes. In the entering of the Mowrey book I have given precident of that information to the information contained in the orginal record, however accurate it may be. In this case I am going to add a marriage for James, even though the marriage dates are obviously incorrect. It will tie the families together for record keeping, and won't leave Sarah Jane Grady in limbo. (per John E. Proctor 12/1999) To complete this issue is the entry in the orginal record of a Sarah Jane Grady, with the same birth date, who is shown to be married to Elijah Carpenter. The text from the Mowrey book makes the status of Sarah Jane suspect. To whom was she married? See text below taken from page 182 of the Mowrey book. From the information in the Mowrey book I am unable to correctly determine the marriages of Sarah Jane, or if in fact we are dealing with two individuals. I rather suspect that the husbands of Sarah Jane are mixed up.

NOTE:
Jerome R.S. Mowrey, who married Malinda Carpenter, eldest daughter of Elijah and Sarah Jane Grady), Carpenter, is probably the best known of this family- He supposedly served in both the Union and Confederate Armies at one time or another during the Civil War and escaped from Andersonville near the end of the war. OR ... As a Seventh Day Adventist Minister, he travelled back and forth between southern Ohio and the Shenandoah Valley preaching the gospel, healing the sick and afflicted and establishing churches. He once burst into a Baptist Church service preaching Revelations, was arrested for disturbing a public meeting and later successfully defended himself by serving as his own attorney at his subsequent trial. His power of persuasion was so great that the jury deliberated less than half an hour before returning a unanimous verdict to acquit him of all charges.

Here is an excerpt from Ernie's retelling of the Carpenter family history.
Sally
The family stories say that two brothers, Benjamin and Jeremiah, and their families came from Ole Virginia in the late 1700's, carrying their belongings on their backs of oxen. They followed creeks and valley paths through the wilderness until they reached what is now Centrailia, near the Braxton-Webster county line. They thought it was the prettiest place they had ever seen, with clear rushing waters and tall trees. They became substantial landholders in this part of the Elk Valley and on nearby Holly River. "My great-great-grandfather and his family once owned just about all of Holly River," Ernie relates. "He traded it off for a horse and saddle, a mountain rifle and bear dog."

THE CARPENTER'S, AN EARLY PIONEER FAMILY OF BRAXTON COUNTY

The following excerpts are from the "Tales of the Elk River Country" as told by Ernie Carpenter, also from the "History of the Carpenters of Fort Carpenter", 1746-1949.

Ernie Carpenter can tell you a great deal about the early history of Elk River. His family down through the generations have been fiddle players living on the upper Elk.

His family home on the river was inundated after the construction of the Sutton Dam in 1955. Ernie 'refugeed" to a small place just north of Sutton. He built a new house using lumber from the old house, but has never gotten over his sense of loss.

The stories and conversations held with Ernie have been recorded and have been published in Goldenseal Volume 12, Number 2 in the article, "Tales of the Elk River Country".

Ernie's great-great-grandfather, Jeremiah Carpenter. One of the first settlers in Braxton Co. Jeremiah the son of William. Carpenter a descendant of the New England Carpenters. This William, the son of the pioneer Joseph Coles Carpenter, who was waylaid and scalped in an attack by Delaware and Mingo Indians. This is said to have taken place about October, 1763. (State Library in Richmond, Va. says Sept. 1750) along with William there were nine other people killed in this raid on the Jackson River - Nicholas Carpenter, James Mayse, Nicholas Nutt, Stephen Sewell, James Montgomery, John Byrd, Mr. Boyle, Mr. Fry and George Kincaid. Joseph Coles Carpenter a son of Nathaniel Carpenter (1668-1729) a native of Musketo Cove, Long Island, New York. Joseph settled in Allegheny Co. Va. in the spring of 1746 where he cleared land on his survey of 782 acres that he had obtained by patent or grant 1 June 1750, from King George III. After clearing the land and putting in a crop, he returned to New York for his family. On his return to his land, he brought with him Peter Wright, who also obtained a grant for the entire site of what is now Covington, Va. In 1792, Peter divided his land between in sons, John & William. Old papers on file in the Court House at Fincastle, Botetourt Co. Va. it states that the Carpenter pioneers of this region erected a Stockade-Fort as a place of refuge during Indian attacks. (More can be found on the Carpenter family in the "History of the Carpenters of Fort Carpenter" 1746-1949,Chapter. III.)

Solomon Carpenter, a son of Jeremiah Carpenter, is the grt-grandfather of Ernie, and he is the son of Shelt Carpenter of Braxton.

Ernie Carpenter: "My grandfather is where I got the most of my information from, what I know, what happened. He would set and talk to me by the hour and tell me those things. I was just a youngster, just a kid then. Because I would set and listen to that kind of stuff it made him interested in it, made him want to tell me all these things." And he told him about the county side where his ancestors settled, when it was untouched by civilation. All about the county side, and the valleys, were now the Sutton Dam is located.

Ernie: "If you'd have ever saw that back years ago before the backwater was up there from the dam, you could have easily understood why they picked that spot when they come in there. That's as far as they went. They settled right there. There were fish, game, bear,deer, there were elk, and they didn't only have Elk River to fish in but they had Laurel Creek.

All they had to do was build a cabin with a roof on it to keep them dry. They didn't even have that for a while. They stayed under rocks until they could get something built. When they did build cabins they was log and the roof on them was old clapboards.My father learnt me how to make clapboards."

(William "Squirrelly Bill" Carpenter, is the grandfather of Ernie.)

About the year 1760, Benjamin and Jeremiah Carpenter were young boys growing up on the outer fringes of the frontier in Western Virginia. The Indians, by then pushed west of the Blue Ridge, were nervous about the advancing whites, and peace between the two peoples was unreliable and at times nonexistent. Ernie tells his family's story of how his great-great-grandfather, Jeremiah, and a neighbor boy adventured too far into the wildwoods one day and were jumped by an Indian hunting party.

Ernie tells the story of how Jeremiah was captured by the Indians when he was twelve years of age, along with a Holcomb boy. And taken to the Indian Village, the Holcomb boy was killed by the Indians, but Jeremiah was saved because of a young Indian maid who begged for his life. Jeremiah and the Holcomb boy were captured by a small band of Shawnee from the Ohio country, and taken to a Village called "Old Town" in Ohio. Jeremiah escaped from this Village when he was about 18 or 19. And returned to his family.

The family stories say that two brothers, Benjamin and Jeremiah, and their families came from Ole Virginia in the late 1700's, carrying their belongings on their backs of oxen. They followed creeks and valley paths through the wilderness until they reached what is now Centrailia, near the Braxton-Webster county line. They thought it was the prettiest place they had ever seen, with clear rushing waters and tall trees. They became substantial landholders in this part of the Elk Valley and on nearby Holly River. "My great-great-grandfather and his family once owned just about all of Holly River," Ernie relates. "He traded it off for a horse and saddle, a mountain rifle and bear dog."

Ernie tells about how the brother of Jeremiah was killed by two Indians at his cabin. The Indians then captured Benjamin's wife and scalped her.

When Jeremiah came home and found his brother and sister-in-law he went to get his wife, who was with child at the time, and went up the Laurel Creek to hide from the Indians in case they came back. They waded in the creek so not to leave footprints for the Indians to track. They waded up to the mouth of Camp Run, and then another mile above that to a large rock that hung out, like a big ledge, they called them shelf rocks. They hid under that shelf rock, and here Solomon (Solly) Carpenter was born, the first white child born in Braxton county. That [fiddle tune] "Shelvin' rock" come from the camp rock that my great-grandfather Solly was borne under.

Another story relates to Jeremiah's wife, having to go get the cows in for the night, and how she hid the children under the floor of the cabin and then she went to search for the cows. They had gotten themselves across the Laurel Creek, and she had to go across to get them. After she had gotten across the creek, a sudden downpour of rain caused the Creek to raise almost out of it's banks. It rained so hard she had to take shelter, and wait until the storm passed. She knew how to swim, but in such a fast and furious water, she knew she could never make it across again.

But her children were alone and she had to get back to them. So she herded the cows into the creek, and then the bull, she grabbed the tail of the bull and let him carry her across. She got the cows back home, and when she got back to the cabin, found her children were just fine. Ernie tells a lot better story, but this gives you an idea what a woman had to do back in the early settlements of this country.

Also about the time when his grt. great grandfather Jeremiah tracked down the big elk,and killed it for their food. Being a extra large elk and to heavy for him to carry over land, he had to find another way to get it back to the cabin. So he skinned the elk, and out of the hide made a canoe which he could float the meat back up to the cabin. He waded the water pushing the elk hide canoe in front of him back to the cabin, which was about twenty miles from where he finally got the elk.

He also tells of the first Christmas tree in Braxton and how it saved them from a band of Indians who had hidden and planned to attack them before they could return to their cabins. He tells that this was when his great-grandfather Solly Carpenter was a young boy. Solly had heard of a Christmas tree, but had never seen one, so Jeremiah found one of the largest pines standing on top of a hill, he took two pieces of wood made it like a cross, and tied them together, and put tallow on it, beef tallow, to make it burn fast and bigger. They took the cross to the top of that tall pine, and tied it on. That evening everyone in the village gathered at the site of the pine to see the Christmas tree. While they were all on top of the hill, a band of Indians had come upon the empty cabins. The Indians went on the look of the people, and when they saw them all standing on top of the hill, they made plans to hide in the rocks at the bottom of the hill, and when they came down they would surprise them and kill them all. Well to make a longer story a little shorter to tell. After dark they lite that cross, and it did burn, fast and bigger, and bigger until it caught the whole top of that big pine on fire. It finally burned itself though the top, and rolled right down that big pine tree, and right on down toward them Indians hiding in the rocks.The Indians thought that something from the sky was coming after them. They were so scared they run off and never bothered one of the village people. A good many years later, when Solly was a young man, he went hunting in the woods, and heard a terrible scream. He went toward the sounds, and found this young Indian boy, who had killed a deer and had it shouldered up and a panther was attacking him for the meat. Solly shot the panther and carried the young Indian boy back to his cabin in the hope that he could be saved, he was badly injured. Well the Indian improved a little, and told Solly about the Christmas tree, and how they had planned on killing them all. Sad to say the Indian did not survive his wounds and Solly took him out and buried him.

Ernie, tells of the respect he has for the Indian people, and how they just wanted to be left alone in their woods, and fought for their homes just like you or I would if someone threaten to take away your homelands.

And he said, "My people are kind of turned like the Indians. They like to live out where it's quiet, off to themselves where they got privacy. That was the nature of the Indian, you know. He wanted to be out in the woods."

Later on, when the country was more settled, Solly Carpenter once witnessed the death of a raftsman on Elk River.

They used to hew out what they called gunwales. They would hew them out of very large trees and they'd just hew two sides of them flat, you know, like hewing a cross tie. They would hew them things out 30,40,50,60 feet long and would float them into Charleston." When they put a couple of them together, they made a good-sized raft. They made barge gunwales out of them for freight barges.

There was a fellow by the name of Gibson had made a couple of those gunwales, and he was going to float them to Charleston. He would not listen when grt. grandfather,told him,"that big of a gunwales was to much for one man to handle, there was a shoal down here that you're going through." It was a short shoal, but it was very rough. The name of the shoal was Breechclout, and it was the next little shoal below Stony Creek. He said back to my great-grandfather, "I don't thank God Almighty for advice on this river, I know all about it." He said, "I'll eat my supper in Sutton , or in hell!" that's just the words he repeated to my great-grandfather." Well he did not say much more to Solly for he hit a huge rock in that shoal, and it threw him off into the river, and he drowned. From that time on many spook stories were told about that place.

Ernie goes on to tell one of the spook Stories, that shook him up a little, sort of scared him after he saw something that he knowed nothing about.His grandfather and his brother, his great-uncle, went fishing, and they took Ernie along with them, mostly to catch bait. They went up there to the mouth of Stony Creek, where all them spook stories have been told about,to fish. They started up that creek, and near a large rock he looked up the creek and saw some honey bees, watering in a little puddle of water. His grt.-uncle knew when he saw them honey bees watering there was a bee tree around close. So they went to find the honey tree. After they had walked a ways he saw a man and he looked like he had on long underwear. He was just moving like slow motion towards us, coming down that creek. His uncle was standing right there by me, looking up that creek, and he never did see that! He never saw that at all. More on this story found in the "Tales of the Elk.River"

Ernie recalls the time his uncle Jake "Squack" Carpenter got spooked into getting a dunking near this same place on the river.

Another good story by Ernie, about his uncle who caught a big pike fish, and how even tho he got himself dunked into the river, the fish never got away.

Ernie's grandfather William "Squirrelly Bill" Carpenter and his exploits are legendary around Braxton County. Brady Randolph, octogenarian and longtime county newspaper editor, said of William, "Elk River and its surrounding streams, fields, and woods were his transportation, his livelihood, and his play -ground." Ernie remembers that his grandfather never wore shoes, but stuck to moccasins in the style of the old settlers. Author William Byrne wrote in Tale of the Elk that, "Squirrelly was an all-around fisherman, a canoe builder and operator, flatboat builder, and steersman, raftsman and general waterdog and fisherman; he was the most inveterate, persistent and uncompromising fisherman ever known in the valley of Elk."

Ernie: My grandfather made canoes and sold them. They got a dollar a foot. they would build these canoes and then take them down to Charleston and sell them. He tells of the two boys who bought two of these canoes, one was a new one and the other was a used one. The boys got into a fight over who got the new one. And few days later, his grandfather came back up the river and saw the canoe setting there cut in two down the middle. He found out later that those two boys had got into a fight and the one sawed it in two. There it was, not worth a cent to nobody.

Sutton was just a village, but there were two or three general stores there and they would give Ernie's grandfather an order for what they wanted. So his grandfather would go down the Elk river to Charleston and get the orders. He explains how many men it usually took to take them big raft type boats down the river, and if the weather was bad how they stayed at certain houses along the way until the weather improved.Sometimes it would take them a few weeks to return from Charleston.

His grandfather, had an instinct for the country side, and Ernie tells of the time that his father, Shelt Carpenter, and Jehu Carpenter his uncle, and his grandfather went on a fishing trip, and how his grandfather saved them all from camping under a huge old dead chestnut tree. He told them to move the camp, since that ole tree was about to come down right on them. They did not believe him, but moved to the camp, and of course the old gentleman was right and about an hour or so later down it fell right where the camp had been located shortly before. Good thing they listened to him and moved that camp or some of them would have surely been killed or injured. When they went on these fishing and camping trips they always took along a special friend of theirs whose name was, Bill Thomas. That Bill was an extra good cook and they took him along to do the cooking for them.

Ernie's grandfather had a gallon bucket almost full of dirt and fish worms. Fish worms was a prize,in them days. That was your bait. His grandfather had this gallon bucket all fixed up to keep them fish worms for four or five days they were going to be camping. In taking the stuff out of the boat, somebody got accidently got the bucket out of the boat along with the other camping equipment. When they made their coffee, they used an open bucket. In those days you just dipped that bucket into the creek or right out of the Elk River, it was good clean water in those days, better than the water we drink today. Well when it was time to get set up for breakfast, Bill Thomas who had gotten up way before day light,and the only light was an old oil lantern scooped up that bucket of worms, thinking it was his bucket to make coffee, and dipped it into the river for some water, and put it on the fire with some coffee in it, When breakfast was ready and someone said, "Pour the coffee." Well somebody took a look at it and said, "What in the world's in this coffee?" His grand -father just raised up and said, "My God, you've got my fish worm bucket and boiled my fish worms!"

Ernie's grandfather learned to play the fiddle when he was very young. In later years he would go and play for the log rollings, and dances. Ernie tells, "They'd send horses for miles, when they'd have one of these log rollings, and get him to play for that log rolling and dance. The boy that brought the horse would walk, and he would ride the horse. The next day they brought him back the same way. A man that played the music in that day and time was really something special." The fiddle that Ernie played was his grandfather's, it was passed down from one generation to the next, Ernie did not say who owned the fiddle originally, but that it had passed down many times from Uncles, cousins, his grandfather, father and then finally to him.

Ernie's father worked in the lumber woods almost all his life, and also farmed. Ernie was born on the farm which was located about three miles above Sutton. His mother dyeing when Ernie was about ten years old or close to that time. He does not say what caused his mothers death, but his father raised the children by himself. His father did not own a sawmill, but he had a fellow that did his sawing for him and then he would hew ties for the B & O Railroad. Ernie says, "At one time, he cut about all the poles in this area for Monongahela Power and Bell Telephone. They were chestnut only, so when the chestnut timber all died they could not get no more poles in this part of the country, so they started getting those creosote pine poles."

When Ernie was about ten years old, his father would take Ernie with him and he would put Ernie on the lower end of a log, this way his father could pull the saw back toward him and it would almost go by itself downhill. Ernie says, "you know. About all I had to do was keep it straight." There was a lot of danger in doing this, but Ernie's father knew all about the danger and always made sure of his sons safety, by having him move to the upper side of the log before it was sawed clear though.

When his father and the boys went to log, they had to cross the river and he had marked a special place on the bank to show where the river could be crossed, the water here was low enough for the horses. Ernie remembers on one of these trips, the river had rose, and the marker clearly showed that he water was a bit too high. But his father was behind in his logging and had to get work done. He sent Ernie and his brother, both riding on one horse across the river, well the horse finding the water too high lost his footing and off went the boys into the high river. His father seeing this, threw his axe off to the bank of the river, jumped from his horse and into the river.His father was a tall man over six foot, so he waded out to the boys and took them back to shore. The horse was standing out in the river, just nickering and pawing at the water, when Ernie's father called to the horse he came right back to the shore. Although this was an exciting but adventure and probably even a little frighting, no one was hurt, and when evening came and the work was done, his father told the boys," "You fellows go around by Sutton." That was about a five-mile trip down to Sutton and back up Ernie's side of the river. He didn't try to ford it any more when the water was at that stage.

Although Ernie had to give up his education at an early age to work with his father, he accepts the fact that it was necessary to help support the family after his mother's death. The six children cared for one another and stayed together as a family until they were old enough to get married. Mabel in 1930, his father Shelt lived with them on the old homeplace until his death in 1937.

Ernie worked the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company in Clarksburg for 38 years before retiring back in Braxton County in 1972. During his years in Clarksburg, he made regular weekend stays at the homeplace on Elk River. It was during this period that Ernie witnessed the planning and building of the Sutton Dam by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers. This flooding of his old home and boyhood surroundings was a bitter experience.

When they started surveying for the dam it was not long before they started buying up the land, and of course Ernie's property was right in the way of that dam. They offered him twenty five dollars and acre, and nothing for his apple orchard. He also has a house, barn and outbuilding, Ernie says," The house wasn't anything fancy, but it was livable. We lived there."

They offered him two dollars an acre for his oil and gas, and ten dollars a thousand for his timber, and ten dollars an acre for his coal. Ernie says, " You imagine! You can't buy stove wood for that kind of price. I told them they was robbing me, they was stealing me blind. No way would they give me a cent more, so I took it to court. I gained quite a little bit by taking it to court, but I had my lawyer fees to come out of that."

It was not long after that they sent him word that he had to be off the property by a certain date, and Ernie replied, "

"You tell them that the men that come up here to set me out won't be going back on their own. Somebody will have to come and get them." Of course he finally had to leave the old homeplace, and build somewhere else as close by as he could find. They cut off the road to his old place, so he would go down Bee Hill and up the river, they found out what he was doing, so they cut off that road. This did not stop Ernie, he went over to Hyre, over to Newville and down the river, and they finally cut him off from going back to his old homeplace that way. Ernie would drive out to the top of the hill and walk down the hill to his place when no one was around, He then would go down and tear down his house piece by piece, and he took it back to his new place and built his new house out of part of the old house.

Down though the generations Ernie says that their music always played an important role in their lives. The Carpenters had passed down their music for generations. His brother, Carl Carpenter played the guitar, and Goldie the banjo, and Ernie played the old fiddle. His music was influenced mainly by his father, and grandfather William. Their music is still cherished by Ernie, tunes such as "Betty Baker," "Yew Piney Mountain." "Ole Sledge," "Shelvin' Rock".

Ernie says, another contributor of these older, special tunes was "Uncle Jack" McElwain, who Ernie states" was the best fiddle player I ever heard." Wallace Pritchard, a neighbor and family friend, also taught Ernie tunes as a boy.

Many of the people of the area gathered together to hear the music at the wood alcohol plant near Sutton, Ernie remembers many of the Calhoun County musicians stopping by to play their music. He remembers one old gentleman, called George Hammons, he would come and stay with people for sometimes a week or so and play, he would walk there in the springtime , carrying all his possessions with him, from Clay county,where he tended cattle for someone in the winter.

When Ernie went into the service, and for a period lasting nearly twenty years, he stopped playing his fiddle music. He tells in the "Tales of the Elk River" how he started back to playing after all this time. And how the song "Golden Slippers", stirred up the music down deep inside him again. If you have ever heard them "Golden Slippers" played on a good ole fiddle, then you would understand just how Ernie felt when he heard the Propst boy playing that song for the people down at Sutton.

When Ernie finally got that fiddle down off the closet shelf, he was really scared at what he found. The ole fiddle was covered with a white mold all over it from one end to the other. But after a careful cleaning up by Ernie, it was back to it's old self again, and fit to play. So Ernie started back with his first love his fiddle playing, and has many tunes about the wilds of Braxton county, most of them have been recorded and are now available for us to enjoy for many more generations to come.

9336. Earnest "Ernie" Carpenter

A great deal of Braxton County Carpenter history was obliterated with the construction of the Sutton Dam. Ernie Carpenter's boyhood home had to be sold by right of "eminent domain". The old cemeteries and grave sites in the Skidmore Botttom where known, were relocated on Airport Road. He did not deny progress and did receive a fair price, but only after a bitter court fight and hardly enough to compensate for him all the memorbila lost. "They just gave me $25 an acre for my land. They allowed me $2 an acre for my oil and gas. They allowed me $10 an acre for my coal, and they allowed me $10 a thousand for my timber. You imagine! You can't buy stove wood for that kind of price".

In the best tradition of his father, "Shelt", "Squirrely Bill" and his Carpenter ancestors, Ernie became a "fiddler" of such note that he gained national prominence. One of his best known tunes was "Shelvin' Rock", commemorating the birth of his grandfather, Solomon Carpenter, in a remote cave on Camp Run. His fondest memory was "When my brother and sister and I were playing together, it meant a lot to me." Carl played the guitar, Goldie the banjo and Ernie the fiddle.

12249. Hobart Sampson "Bart" Butcher

Hobart Sampson "Bart" Butcher was born 9 July 1898 at Spencer, West Virginia, died 24 April 1989 and married on 23 August 1931 at San Diego, California to Gladys Vernen Moree (born 10 July 1907 at Plevna, Reno County , Kansas, died at Spokane, Washington, daughter of DeForest and Jennie (Foote) Moree)

The above and the following are taken from the Mowrey book. The family record in this case is of value due to the fact that it indicates that there were other children, at least one more daughter, in this family. The child was not named, just the statement "another daughter".
Children of Hobart Sampson Butcher, of Martha Elizabeth Argabrite, of Elizabeth Wines.
1. Bette Jeanette Butcher was born 20 November 1932 at Honolulu, Hawaii and married on 23 August 1952 at Yuma, Arizona to John Andrew Topp (born 20 November 1933 at New York City, son of John and Pearl (Bozoki) Topp.
Another daughter.

Dolpheus Jackson Brannon

In the Mowrey book the last name for Dolpheus Jackson is spelled Brannon, the orginal record has it spelled Braman. In order to be consistant with other entries I am changing the spelling to the Mowrey book, Brannon.

14918. Brinda Sue Carpenter

Brinda Sue (22) Carpenter (twin) was born 1 May 1946 and died 15 September 1946. This is taken from the Mowrey book, it could be that Brinda is a typo, and it should be Brenda, unknown at this time.

Subject: Joseph Carpenter of New York and West Virginia
Dear Mr. Carpenter
My name is Jacob Carpenter. I am a twenty-seven-year-old resident of Cleveland, Tennessee. You were acquainted with Granddad, the late Richard Llewellyn Carpenter (wife Mary Frances White) of West Virginia and our home town. I emailed about removing [Captain] Nathaniel and Tamar (Coles) Carpenter from Joseph Carpenter (wife Leah) of New York and West Virginia. We discussed this quandary briefly, the ultimate decision being me looking over Grandfather's notes and contrasting his data and your own.

Due to physical disabilities, I could and still can't sort through the entirety of materials Grandpa Carpenter left behind. Grandma's people are similar, though a controversial ancestress's records were gathered up by me. That being irrelevant, I skimmed over handwritten notes on Joseph. As mentioned in you and I's last exchanges, Granddad dismissed the unproved suggestion that documentation linked our ancestor to [Reverend] William Carpenter, Senior (wife Elizabeth Arnold) of England and Rhode Island via Nathaniel.
Believe it or not, we have actually met! Grandfather brought me along to the Carpenter Cousins Conference of 2003. Paul Mowrey (wife Lola) gave his personal compilation to me as a gift. My older brother Joshua destroyed it through carelessness. I remember taking the book to London, England when him, Daddy and Momma, and myself traveled there with the high school band (Joshua, percussionist) and choir (me, reluctant tenor and open sopranist). We failed miserably in pursuit of locating the royal origins which got obliterated.
While I still conduct genealogical endeavors from home, attentions shifted towards my mother's side. She and her younger sister are from Macon, Georgia. Their ancestry is concentrated in the southern United States and Maryland. Y-D. N. A. was gathered by way of the only living male in my maternal granddad's father to son line, albeit it barely helped. Nonetheless, I'm hoping another Carpenter cousin will take up Grandpa's work. Who that might be, I don't know. The Conference's contact directory transcribed his unchanged stance.
Mr. Carpenter, I do hope you could send me the information about your last messages to my grandfather! They would be insightful examinations, given his pursuit of proven connections which I share. If you cannot, sir, I respectfully understand. Agreeing, agreeing to disagree, et cetera, which Maryland resident Terry Carpenter warmly told Father (Douglas Eric Carpenter).
Yours sincerely,
Jacob Carpenter (423) 715-5501jacobcarpenter1@outlook.com

Paul Thomas Mowrey, Jr., age 89, of Dover, died Saturday evening, December 31, 2022, at Community Hospice Truman House, New Philadelphia.

He was born January 18, 1933, in Connorville, Jefferson County, to the late Paul T. Mowrey, Sr. and Mildred (Carpenter) Mowrey. Paul was a 1952 graduate of Warren Consolidated High School in Tiltonsville, where he excelled in academics and athletics. He wrestled under Joe Begala at Kent State University, from which he graduated, earning a bachelor's degree in comprehensive social studies with a minor in chemistry. Paul continued his studies earning a master’s degree in sociology; he was a member of honor societies in both fields of study.

Paul rose from humble beginnings, having been born in a railroad boxcar, and learned the value of hard work at an early age. He labored on farms and picked up jobs wherever he could in order to supplement his family’s income. Paul wore many hats over the years, from construction and working nights in a steel mill as a teenager, to employment in a greenhouse and a restaurant to support himself in college, to pumping gas and then working as a roofer in the summers that separated the years when he later taught school.

He married the former Lola Nine on September 1, 1956, and his first teaching assignment came two years later in 1958 when he was employed as a social studies and chemistry teacher at Nordonia High School in Summit County. Paul started the wrestling program there, initially practicing on the stage, as the gym was reserved for the basketball team. “Mowrey’s Mighty Maulers,” as the team was dubbed, sported three undefeated teams, a consecutive dual match win streak, and claimed seven league titles. His record at Nordonia was 114-14.

In 1965, Paul accepted a teaching and coaching position in Dover, and he and Lola moved their young family to Tuscarawas County. He took a personal interest in his students and truly made history come alive in the classroom. By retirement in 1988 he had taught many subjects, but his greatest academic interests were in Civil War history, anthropology and sociology.

Paul served as football equipment manager during his first few years in Dover, and again took on a fledgling wrestling team that grew to be a powerhouse under his tutelage. He coached his early years without an assistant, and when he obtained permission to add a junior high program, he found himself in the position of coaching both teams due to a lack of applicants.

On December 6, 1976, the Crimson Tornados beat rival Carrollton 32-26 to give Coach Mowrey his 267th career win, making him the winningest dual meet coach in Ohio history, and, in 1982, he was recognized as “The Winningest Coach in the Nation.” When Paul stepped down as coach at Dover, his dual meet record stood at 342-70-3. His overall record in dual meets, quadrangulars and tournaments was 633-203-17.

After he retired from teaching in 1988, Paul missed contact with young people and took the position of wrestling coach at Tuscarawas Catholic Central Catholic High School. Though the team was small, he enjoyed the success of individual boys under his instruction, and coached a number of them to state competition. Paul officially retired in 1996 after 36 years of coaching. In 1980, the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dans honored Coach Mowrey for his contribution to athletics, and, in 2018, he was inducted into the Dover Athletic Hall of Fame.

Paul loved the outdoors, and, when in good health, spent most of his leisure hours working on the grounds around his home. He also loved trees and planted hundreds of them, even giving names to some of which he was particularly fond.

In midlife, Paul developed a great interest in genealogy and enjoyed genealogical research before computers became the prime source of information. He and Lola enjoyed many travels in pursuit of family history and made many friends along the way. Paul and Lola were active in the "Carpenter Cousins," an international organization for serious researchers of that name. Paul had written books on both the Carpenter and Mowrey families and had helped many people build their family trees. Additionally, he belonged to Summit Lodge No. 213 F. & A.M., Twinsburg, and was recognized in 2015 as a 50 year member.

In 1993, Paul and Lola opened Mowrey's Welcome Bed and Breakfast, welcoming guests to their home for a number of years. Paul maintained a booth in the Dover Flea Market where he sold books and other items, and made many friends. He enjoyed telling stories, and will be remembered by many for his entertaining narratives. Most of all, Paul loved his family, and his passing will leave a hole that cannot be filled.

He will be dearly missed by his wife, Lola; his children, Stephanie (Donn) Handy of Swannanoah, NC, Paul T. (Kathleen) Mowrey III of Dover, and Christopher (Margaret) Mowrey of San Angelo, TX; his grandchildren, Christine (Justin) Patterson, Paul Mowrey IV, Sampson Mowrey, Randi (Tabor) McEnrue and Zeke (Rachel) Mowrey; his step-grandchildren, Justin (Jamie), Chad and Christopher Dean; his great-grandchildren, Rowan, Ruby and Cora Patterson; his step-great-grandchildren; his dear cousin, Steven Lovett, and his wife, Sheila, and their daughter, Allison; and his nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, Paul was preceded in death by his sisters, Pauline and Betty Mowrey, Hester Krenke, Nancy Ella, Mary Ruckh and Emma Polen.

Family and friends are invited to call at the Toland-Herzig Funeral Home & Crematory, Dover, on Friday, January 6, 5 - 7 p.m. A funeral service will be held Saturday, January 7, at 11 a.m. in the funeral home. Hi Jan,
I am a Powell researcher. Moses A. Powell (m. Elvira Elizabeth Carpenter) is in my family database.
The following is a Bio by Goodspeed on Sterling Monroe Carpenter in Conway Co., AR. Sterling was son of Robert A. Carpenter and Mary Ann Powell. It mentions that Sterling's paternal grandfather was Reuben Carpenter. Was Robert A. Carpenter's father named Robert Reuben Carpenter or is there a Reuben Carpenter in your database that would posibly match?
"Western Arkansas Biographies and Historical Memories: Conway County", Goodspeed Publishing Co., Chicago, IL., 1891, pg. 56 (Lawson). Sterling M. CARPENTER, one of the enterprising and substantial farmers of Lick Mountain Township, was born on the farm on which he now resides, two miles southeast of Centre Ridge, in the year 1857. Here he spent his entire life, and is the owner of a fine farm of 160 acres, which includes the original tract of eighty acres settled by his father about thirty-five years ago. There are about ninety acres under a fine state of cultivation, and the entire farm presents an appearance of thrift and prosperity. Mr. CARPENTER was reared when the schools of Conway County were in their infancy; hence his education is comparatively limited. In December, 1876, he was married to Miss Eveline WILLIAMS, a native of Forsyth County, Georgia, and a daughter of Rev. Joseph and Louisa WILLIAMS, who were born in South Carolina and Georgia, respectively; Mrs. WILLIAMS dying on Crowley's Ridge while the family were removing to Arkansas, when Mrs. CARPENTER was about ten years of age. Mr. WILLIAMS continued his journey westward, and located in Conway County, where he departed this life in 1876. He was a Baptist minister. Mr. CARPENTER is the father of three sons and two daughters; is a Republican in polities and cast his first presidential vote for James A. GARFIELD in 1880. He and Mrs. CARPENTER are consistent members of the Christian Church. Robert CARPENTER, deceased, the father of Sterling M., was probably a native of South Carolina, and was born in 1825. He was married in Mississippi in 1846 to Miss Mary A. POWELL, who was born in Mississippi in 1825. In about 1848 they removed to Texas, and lived there six years, when they returned to Mississippi, and a short time after (about 1855), emigrated to Conway County, Arkansas, and settled in the woods a considerable distance from another settlement. Here they laid the foundation for their future home, and bore their share of the privations and hardships so common to pioneer life. On this farm Mr. CARPENTER spent the rest of his life as a sturdy and honest farmer and an upright citizen. Contrary to the majority of the people of his native as well as of his adopted State, he was opposed to secession, and a staunch defender of the Union, and in June, 1862, he enlisted in Company B, of the First Arkansas Volunteer Infantry, of Gen. CURTIS' command, but was not destined to do much service for the cause he so ardently advocated, as his death occurred at St. Louis, October 29th, of the same year as his enlistment. He was a consistent member of the Missionary Baptist Church. Mrs. CARPENTER is still living on the old farm, and is a member of the Christian Church. She is the mother of seven children, viz.; Letha (deceased), Martha, wife of Joseph VAUGHAN, Elizabeth, now Mrs. R. M. SIMPSON, S. M.; Julia, Louisa and an infant, deceased. Mrs. CARPENTER's father, William POWELL, was born and married in South Carolina, and from there he removed to Monroe County, Mississippi, where he died about 1827. Mrs. POWELL died there about 1852. Both were Primitive Baptists. Charles POWELL, the father of William POWELL, was also a South Carolinian. Reuben CARPENTER, the paternal grandfather of S. M. CARPENTER, was a native of South Carolina, but afterward lived in Mississippi, and from there he removed to Texas, where he died. His wife died there also. Jan Lawson.

Dec. 31, 1951 - May 7, 2009
Randall H. "Munchkin" FURNIVALL, 57, of 1030 Elm St., Rochester, died Thursday at Woodlawn Hospital, Rochester.

On Dec. 31, 1951, Randall H. Furnivall was born to Donald H. and Naomi Jean (Carpenter) Furnivall. He was married to Kathy Sue Smith on Dec. 22, 1974, in Rochester, and she survives.

Randy's life story begins on a unique note. He was born 3 1/2 months premature, weighing a mere 1 pound 12 ounces. When he was allowed to come home he was brought in a shoe box. He was so tiny that he slept in a dresser drawer.

As a young man, a proud Zebra, graduating from Rochester High School in 1972 - Randy was a record-setting wrestler. Wrestling at 98 pounds, this remarkable young man was MVP and garnered the most points for three consecutive years. It was Randy and teammate Wayne Grube who were the first men of the mats to be inducted into the Letterman's Club.

Randy, known by his best friends as "Munchkin," proved that size doesn't matter. Overcoming many odds he was dealt, Randy answered with a positive attitude, highly motivated to persevere with grace and style. With his hustle, work ethic and common sense and great desire to help others he was an example for all to follow. He accomplished many things in his life of 57 years - and his influence was one of his greatest gifts - leaving a rippling effect to all of the lives he touched.

As a 32-year member of the Fulton County Emergency Management Association, Randy was currently serving as communications chief. He also served the Fulton County CB Club as president for a number of years. Randy was also a member of the Old Cross Roads Baptist Church, Gilead.

A collector of die cast cars of the 1950s to 1970s, Randy also loved the music of Jan and Dean and the Beach Boys. In the early years it was Randy who enjoyed the camaraderie of sharing the daily events at Hardee's over coffee. More recently the coffee guys enjoy talking over the events of the day at Wendy's. Randy was always there in the thick of things.

Following his graduation from RHS he attended the Elkhart Workshop for the Blind. Randy was recognized for his ability to motivate his classmates by common sense. His solid work ethic was also noted - as a hustler and the go to man to get the job done!

Randy was a man of many talents. Early on in his career he worked at Kentucky Fried Chicken and the Cedar Post Restaurant. He was also a dispatcher for the Rochester Police Department. As a bookkeeper he worked for RSVP and the Area V Council on Aging. As a mechanic he helped Jack Utter repairing mopeds and bicycles. Later utilizing his small engine repair skills, he opened a shop in his garage and repaired mowers and other small engines. Randy always kept busy helping others with a variety of odd jobs, as providing for his family was essential.

Randy was a caring and a giving human, willing to share the shirt off his back. He enjoyed organizing and promoting fish fries and chili suppers for charity with the proceeds directed to Fulton County residents for Special Olympics or burn victims. In the evenings he enjoyed watching "COPS" and "America's Most Wanted," and he began six days a week with WROI's "Trading Post."

Of supreme importance to Randy was his family. Together they enjoyed outings to Indiana Beach, Potawatomi Zoo, Science Central and Chuckie Cheese's. These outing and special times shared together always revolved around his children and then later grandchildren. This true gentleman with a heart of gold leaves behind a wonderful legacy. His loyal and devoted wife Kathy; adoring children, Janella Furnivall and John Banter, Logansport, and Jason Furnivall and wife Katheryn, Akron; four loving grandsons, Michael, Tyler, and Kyle Banter, Logansport, and Lerris "Leaf" Furnivall, Akron; and dedicated brothers, Richard Furnivall and wife Kathy, Rochester, and Ronald Furnivall and wife Tina, Rochester, all will remember the many good times their family shared, cherishing their memories. Munchkin will also be missed by his friends at the Old Cross Roads Baptist Church, coffee pals, CB buddies and the Fulton County EMA family. Nieces, nephews and cousins also survive.

Randy was preceded in death by his mother-in-law, Esther Smith, and his brother-in-law, Karl Smith.

A celebration of the life of Mr. Randall H. "Munchkin" Furnivall will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Good Family Funeral Home, 1200 W. 18th St., Rochester, with Pastor Thad Stewart officiating. Friends may visit with his family from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. Friday and an hour prior to his service. Burial will follow in Rochester IOOF Cemetery.

Preferred memorials may be made to the Fulton County Special Olympics, Omega Church, the Old Cross Roads Baptist Church or the Indiana School for the Blind. Electronic expressions of sympathy may be made to the family at goodfamily@rtcol.com.

1703. John A. Carpenter

Jackson county is now in WV.
NAME: AKA "Dusky".
John A. (17) Carpenter was born 1820-1823, married Mary E. Sharp circa 1850, resided in Jackson County in 1850 and died in Roane County after 1870.
(There is much evidence to suggest that Martha, Joseph and John A. were actually children of Thomas (17) and Sarah (Wright) Carpenter and that Stephen and Susan were children of John (16) and Sarah Ratcliff Carpenter.
Research is necessary!)

Mary Malinda Tanner

Here is another situation with an individual having two spouses named the John Carpenter but who have different parents. This Mary Malinda with the same parents but listed as Mary, in one marriage, married John Carpenter.
Which one is the correct spouse is not known.
One of the Marys may have had for a father one of the two Jesse Tanners in the file.

1705. Alfred Carpenter

Roane county is now VW.
CHILDREN: Ann born 1855 is not proven.

MARRIAGE: Was Alfred married to a Nancy Wolfe? Or was this Nancy Miller's former married name? Could Ann be of this other marriage?

3894. Ann Carpenter

Not proven as child. Maybe child from another marriage?

1713. Jesse "Buffalo" Tanner Sr.

Jesse and Lucinda (Raines) Tanner his third wife, found in 1870 census Roane Co. and 1880 Roane Co. WV.
Jesse Tanner Sr. called "Buffalo".

NOTE: Jesse "Buffalo" TANNER Sr. AND Jesse "Ike" TANNER may or may not be the same person. I think maybe, but there is enough debate to allow two until further details come forth.

It might take me some time to go through this. I probably won't get to it until after April 15. I still have to do my taxes and as of Sunday am working with the police investigating a break in at my grandmother's house Zadia Dale Price Greathouse. She passed in 2010. I was planning to remodel her house just to have a place to stay in Richwood when want to visit there, but nope... the thieves and druggees aren't going to let us keep anything decent there. It has been broken into three times. It sets on the Greathouse homestead land settled there in 1906 when Ervin M. Greathouse, son of Isaac B. & Sarah Elizabeth Tanner Greathouse moved his family there to run his own lumber tram operation hauling logs to Cherry River Boom & Lumber Company.At first glance at Judith "Polly" Carpenter... I think Jesse Tanner's first wife Mary Elizabeth "Polly" Carpenter nickname may have been attached to Judith by some researchers who didn't catch that Jesse Tanner married Mary Elizabeth "Polly" about 1820. She appears to have died about the time her son William Tanner was born about 1836. She has been reported as daughter of Jesse & Sarah Jane Riffe Carpenter. Jesse next married Judith Carpenter daughter of Jeremiah & Elizabeth Hamm Carpenter about 1827. Their first child appears to have been Thomas Tanner if I recall. I have not seen any records in which Judith was named Polly.I can give you Judith's death record rather quickly, in which Jesse Tanner related her parents as J. [Jeremiah] and Elizabeth [Hamm] Carpenter. Her death register entry is on line 41.--Rick Greathouserick@greathouse.us mailto:rick@greathouse.us>

3899. Riley Tanner

Riley Tanner was born about 1839, married Nancy E. Collins`15 August 1865 and died before 27 December 1876 when Nancy E. (Collins) Tanner remarried.

The Mowrey Book and this orginal record are again in conflict. Riley is listed as the son of Jesse "Ike" Tanner (Sr.) b. abt 1795 AND Jesse "Buffalo" Tanner.

3901. Elizabeth "Betsey" Tanner

Elizabeth "Betsey" Tanner was born circa 1842 and married Peter Pool 9 January 1867.

3903. Sarah E. Tanner

Sarah "Sally" Tanner was born around 1847 and married Isaac Greathouse 3 September 1863.

John,Thanks for the info...Regarding Sarah E. Tanner married Isaac B. Greathouse, there was a newspaper article written about her in the Reedy News, "124 Grand Children" in Jul 1931 a year before her death in 1932. The submitter of the typed copy has stated that Fred Craig Sr., [ran several newspapers in Spencer], dropped it off to her in the 1960s while she was visiting family in Spencer.The first son she named Irvan Greathouse of Richwood was the grand-father of my father.Her death certificate is available here:Her son-in-law, Edward Tanner, whom married her daughter, America Tucker, was a little confused about whom her parents were, obviously. Sarah Elizabeth Tanner married a William Tucker after Isaac B. Greathouse's death on 29 Dec 1881. And some 50 years ago from date of newspaper article, she and Isaac were living on the land that belonged to Adam Goebel in 1932. Deeds: Leonard Simmons to Isaac Greathouse; Isaac Greathouse to J. LUCINDA WAS ABT 31 YRS YOUNGER TAN JESSE. LIVED IN ROANE CO WVA IN CENSUS: 1860,70,80. THEIR LOG HOUSE BUILT BY JESSE WAS LOCATED ON THEIR LARGE FARM WHICH IS NOW KNOWN AS THE ALVOID SECTION OF SPENCER, WVA. THE CABIN SAT ON A KNOLL ACROSS FROM THE RAYMOND CARPER HOUSE NOW STANDS.

SPOUSE: Jesse "Ike" or Jesse "Buffalo" Tanner? The same person?

It is interesting to note that in the Mowrey book concerning this marriage, there are no birth dates given for any of the children. This is in variance with all other families which at least show a year of birth.

NAME: Judith was known as Polly, but her name is often spellt as Judy or Judah instead of Judith. See page 48 of the Mowrey 1997 book:
Per page 48: 11. Judith (17) Carpenter was born around 1809, married Jesse "Ike" Tanner circa 1837 and died 10 October 1859 (Jesse reported her death in Roane County. Other records have her death in Braxton county, VA.
She was fifty years old and the daughter of J. and Elizabeth (Hamm) Carpenter of Braxton (page 49) County. She and Jesse's first wife, Mary Carpenter (daughter of Jesse and Sarah Jane Riffe Carpenter) are probably buried in the old Tanner Cemetery on Craig Ridge.

Zenith Carpenter, eldest known son of Zophar, was born in Botetourt Co., VA about 1771/76. He was of age when his father died in 1798 and received his 100 acre inheritance at that time, whereas his borthers, Rufus and Robert waited until they were of age and the remaining 200 acres remained in their Mother's name until then. The 1810 census of Garrard Co., KY lists his age as between 26 and not yet 45; In 1820 as as over 45; and in 1830, after he had moved to neighboring Rockcastle Co. as being from 50 to not yet 60 years of age. If over 45 yrs. of age in 1820 , he would have to have been over 55 in 1830 and no more than 59. So his birth date would fall from 1771 70 1776.

Zenith is difficut to trace. His name appears in the index of the Garrard Co. Circuit Court cases, but all of the books are now in the State Archives. I have not bothered to make the many trips necessary to search. It is the genealogist's worst night-mare when records are completely destroyed by fire. It is also our misfortune that Zenith moved to Rockcastle Co. where in 1873 arson resulted in all of the County Court records being bing a loss for countless families doing research. What remains on Zenith is the result of lean gleanings from limited sources.

Zenith was no doubt named for his uncle, Zeno. Various records record Zenes, Zenus, and even Tenus when uninformed researchers misread old hand writing. Eventually, the name Zenith stuck and carried on, per evidence of a grandson like-named. On 23Mar1793, Alexander Boyle was the bondsman for the marriage of his sister Ann to Zenes (Zenith) Carpenter in then Madison Co., KY.

The 1810 census for Garrard Co. lists both Zenith and Ann as between 26 and 45 yrs. of age. They have 2 boys and 3 girls under ten; 2boys and 1 girl 10-16; 1 boy and 1 girl 16-26. The 1820 census probably lists all of their children, under 10, 3 boys and 1 girl; 10-16, 1 boy and 2 girls; 16-18, 1 boy; 18-26, 2boys and 2 girls (12 children in all supposing that all listed are theirs).

In 1822, for some reason, Zenith and Ann sell their 100 acres to Rufus. This transaction documents the location of each brother's land. Zenith's land adjoined Thomas Kennedy on the north, Robert Carpenter on the east, Ambrose Ross on the south, and Rufus Carpenter on the west. The acreage of Zenith was the choice land of the 300 acres owned by the brothers, but all of the land was classified as 2nd rate. In1824 he is in neighboring Rockcastle Co. which connects Garrard on the south. He paid taxes this year and had 200 acres of 3rd rate land on Skeggs Creek which covers the greater portion on the south part of the county. He is listed with 1 white male and 5 horses. He is carried on the tax list until 1835; however he apparently had sold all of his land as early as 1831.

(This compiler suggests for the history buff that the early hunter's trace and later settler's trace called Skaggs Trace after the brothers Richard and Henry is probably the source for the name Skeggs Creek.)

In 1830 Zenith is between 50 and 60 yrs. of age with 2 boys and 1 girl, 10-15; 1 boy and 1 girl, 15-20; and 1 girl 20-30. Ann is either deceased at this time or living with one of her children. I choose to think that she is dead as Zenith begins to get rid of his land. Where he goes or if he went anywhere is a mystery. He may have stayed and died in Rockcastle Co., or he may have gone south as at least one of his children did.

The late Forrest Calico, author of, A History of Garrard Co. and its Churches, left many notes on family research he had done over many years. I am fortunate to have copies of many of these notes that refer to my family. Mr. Calico is perhaps the first person to develope in me an interest in history and family, especially on the Carpenters when he told me about Kegley's Virginia Frontier and its reference to Zophar Carpenter. Family had never mentioned Zophar as a relative, but in my youth I had at times when hunting, or establishing a Crow Blind on Graveyard hill, I would read the Markers in the Cemetery and wonder who they were. Back to the notes. One of the notes, which had no source, names the alleged children of Zenith and Ann as: Robert and Elizabeth of Hardin Co., TN; Jane Carson, wife of S.M. Carson of Shelby Co., TN; Harrison and Finley Carpenter, Susan Minks (later Branaman); Telitha C. (may be Cummins?); and matilda Preston of Rockcastle Co. Some of these names are disputed by other researchers as being the children of Zenith. They have no proof and neither do I. There are two exceptions. Elizabeth is a proven daughter of Zenith as he is so identified as the father in her marriage bond to a James Mitchell with a minister's return date of 27Jun1820. There is no bond date in the Garrard Co. However, on the same date there is also an alleged marriage of a James Mitchell to a Polly Watkins, both returns by the same minister! Anyway, It is likely that Elizabeth went to Hardin Co., TN as there is proof of a family connection there.

In the 1897 Annals of Platt Co., MO was published the genealogies of its noted families. The Carpenter features: Robert Carpenter, son of Zenith, of Alabama, was born in 1795; married Rebecca May (marriage confirmed in Lawrence Co., AL on 7Feb1820). Their son, Zenith Carpenter, was born 27Jul1821. The article goes on to name children and marriages, etc. With this information, I decided to test Mr. Calico's statement that Robert and Elizabeth were of Hardin Co., TN. This county is on the Tennessee and Alabama border, not far from Lawrence Co., Alabama where Robert was married. While I was in the area on a business trip, I visited the court house, but had only abt 30 minutes to search as the office closed at noon. I was able to check the indexes only. True enough, there were several Carpenter entries, including a Robert and Rebecca and Zenith, which had to be the grandson of the subject of these notes who is later found in Missouri. Other Carpenter names were Lucinda, andThomas W. All entries spanned from 1846 to 1867. I am certain that other data is available when time and effort suits. The question remains; who were the other children of Zenith and Ann, and where did Zenith spend his last days.

In my early days of gathering data, I sometimes failed to record the source, as I no doubt felt that I would never go as far in detailing as I find myself doing now. One of my notes that I copied from a published source refers to testimony which involved Ambrose Ross, quote: " Zenith Carpenter told Ambrose Ross he considered him as big a fool as he ever saw when drunk." Interesting as Zenith's brother, Robert married Ross' daughter.

The suggested children, not proven will remain as part of the notes on Zenith until proven or disproven.

3900. Henry Lawson "Loss" Tanner

Henry was born around 1840, he married Jane Greathouse 29 October 1867.

The Mowrey Book and this orginal record are again in conflict. In the Mowrey book the following children appear in the Henry Lawson Tanner of Jesse Sr of Sudna Carpenter. A comparison to this orginal record is also shown:
Mowrey Book
Orginal record
Zedock b: 8 Jan 1872 d: 27 May 1962
Zedock b: abt 1871
Marion Preston "Press "b:26 July 1876 d:20 Feb 1951
Marion Preston b: abt 1876
Frenchman abt 1883 aft 1969
Robert b:5 Apr 1884
Francis "Frank"
Jesse
Samuel
Lucretia "Creese"
Netty
James A. b: abt 1867
Mary L. b: abt 1869
Emma M. b:abt 1874
It can be seen from these comparisions that the confusion continues, and it is suspected that it all stems from the confusion between Buffalo and Ike Tanner. To further confuse the families each of them was married 3 times, and each had the same wife, Lucinda Raines, as their 3 wife. While I find all of this confusing, and some of it unlikely, I am reconstructing the genealogy in favor of the Mowrey book and noting as per the above information as much of the comparisions as possible. I will leave the final family lines to someone more qualified.

Children of Robert Tanner, of Henry Lawson Tanner, of Jesse and Judith (17) Carpenter) Tanner as shown in the Mowrey book, page 120 shows that there should be a Robert Tanner in this family, neither of the orginal or previously entered data, (from the Mowrey book) indicates this. the children are shown below.
1.Bessie Tanner was born 10 May 1916 at Creston (Wirt County) and married in Roane County 2 April 1933 Hallie Earl Shrader, son of Samuel T. and Rosa Vevie (Hedges) Shrader.
2. Icie Tanner married and divorced Roy Woodring. She was murdered, tied to a kitchen chair and shot in the head with a paper bag pulled down over her face at Creston. The crime was never solved. Some say that the killer was a man named Cambell with whom she had been living. Others speculate that it was a couple of the Greathouse boys who were always in some kind of serious trouble with the legal system. Nothing was ever proven in either case.
3. Raymond Clyde Tanner was killed in Germany during World War 2 at twenty-nine years of age.

6880. Frenchman Tanner

Frenchman Tanner was born circa 1883, died after 1969 and married 26 September 1905 Mary E. Boggs.

Minter Jackson Carpenter

Minter (19) Carpenter was born around 1869 and married Manda Tanner 14 May 1891 in Roane County. They were the parents of the James F. Carpenter who married Flora Ann Mowrey on 14 January 1923 in Roane County.

3916. Mary Malinda Tanner

Here is another situation with an individual having two spouses named the John Carpenter but who have different parents. This Mary Malinda with the same parents but listed as Mary, in one marriage, married John Carpenter.
Which one is the correct spouse is not known.
One of the Marys may have had for a father one of the two Jesse Tanners in the file.

John A. Carpenter

Jackson county is now in WV.
NAME: AKA "Dusky".
John A. (17) Carpenter was born 1820-1823, married Mary E. Sharp circa 1850, resided in Jackson County in 1850 and died in Roane County after 1870. (There is much evidence to suggest that Martha, Joseph and John A. were actually children of Thomas (17) and Sarah (Wright) Carpenter and that Stephen and Susan were children of John (16) and Sarah Ratcliff Carpenter. Research is necessary!)

John Carpenter

John (18) Carpenter was born about 1827, married Malinda Tanner 29 February 1844 in Jackson County and resided in Gilmer County in 1850.

3930. Andrew Jackson Tanner

Andrew Jackson Tanner was born in December of 1829 and married 29 August 1850 Jane Runnion (born circa 1831, daughter of John and Deborah (Carpenter (17) Runnion).

Jane Runnion

Jane Runnion was born about 1831 in Jackson/Roane County and married on 29 August 1850 to Andrew Jackson Tanner (born 1822 and the son of Elijah and Marian (King) Tanner).

6906. Mary Margaret Tanner

Mary Margaret Tanner was born 1854 and married 25 December 1872 Daniel Minter Bowers in Roane County.

6908. Roseanne Elizabeth Tanner

"Roseanne E. Tanner was born 1860 in Roane County and married 28 October 1881 J.R. Smith (born 1859 in Harrison County).

Subject: RE: Location of Jeremiah and Benjamin CARPENTER
John:
Here is an excerpt from Ernie's retelling of the Carpenter family history.
Sally
The family stories say that two brothers, Benjamin and Jeremiah, and their families came from Ole Virginia in the late 1700's, carrying their belongings on their backs of oxen. They followed creeks and valley paths through the wilderness until they reached what is now Centrailia, near the Braxton-Webster county line. They thought it was the prettiest place they had ever seen, with clear rushing waters and tall trees. They became substantial landholders in this part of the Elk Valley and on nearby Holly River. "My great-great-grandfather and his family once owned just about all of Holly River," Ernie relates. "He traded it off for a horse and saddle, a mountain rifle and bear dog."

THE CARPENTER'S, AN EARLY PIONEER FAMILY OF BRAXTON COUNTY

The following excerpts are from the "Tales of the Elk River Country" as told by Ernie Carpenter, also from the "History of the Carpenters of Fort Carpenter", 1746-1949.

Ernie Carpenter can tell you a great deal about the early history of Elk River. His family down through the generations have been fiddle players living on the upper Elk.

His family home on the river was inundated after the construction of the Sutton Dam in 1955. Ernie 'refugeed" to a small place just north of Sutton. He built a new house using lumber from the old house, but has never gotten over his sense of loss.

The stories and conversations held with Ernie have been recorded and have been published in Goldenseal Volume 12, Number 2 in the article, "Tales of the Elk River Country".

Ernie's great-great-grandfather, Jeremiah Carpenter. One of the first settlers in Braxton Co. Jeremiah the son of William. Carpenter a descendant of the New England Carpenters. This William, the son of the pioneer Joseph Coles Carpenter, who was waylaid and scalped in an attack by Delaware and Mingo Indians. This is said to have taken place about October, 1763. (State Library in Richmond, Va. says Sept. 1750) along with William there were nine other people killed in this raid on the Jackson River - Nicholas Carpenter, James Mayse, Nicholas Nutt, Stephen Sewell, James Montgomery, John Byrd, Mr. Boyle, Mr. Fry and George Kincaid. Joseph Coles Carpenter a son of Nathaniel Carpenter (1668-1729) a native of Musketo Cove, Long Island, New York. Joseph settled in Allegheny Co. Va. in the spring of 1746 where he cleared land on his survey of 782 acres that he had obtained by patent or grant 1 June 1750, from King George III. After clearing the land and putting in a crop, he returned to New York for his family. On his return to his land, he brought with him Peter Wright, who also obtained a grant for the entire site of what is now Covington, Va. In 1792, Peter divided his land between in sons, John & William. Old papers on file in the Court House at Fincastle, Botetourt Co. Va. it states that the Carpenter pioneers of this region erected a Stockade-Fort as a place of refuge during Indian attacks. (More can be found on the Carpenter family in the "History of the Carpenters of Fort Carpenter" 1746-1949,Chapter. III.)

Solomon Carpenter, a son of Jeremiah Carpenter, is the grt-grandfather of Ernie, and he is the son of Shelt Carpenter of Braxton.

Ernie Carpenter: "My grandfather is where I got the most of my information from, what I know, what happened. He would set and talk to me by the hour and tell me those things. I was just a youngster, just a kid then. Because I would set and listen to that kind of stuff it made him interested in it, made him want to tell me all these things." And he told him about the county side where his ancestors settled, when it was untouched by civilation. All about the county side, and the valleys, were now the Sutton Dam is located.

Ernie: "If you'd have ever saw that back years ago before the backwater was up there from the dam, you could have easily understood why they picked that spot when they come in there. That's as far as they went. They settled right there. There were fish, game, bear,deer, there were elk, and they didn't only have Elk River to fish in but they had Laurel Creek.

All they had to do was build a cabin with a roof on it to keep them dry. They didn't even have that for a while. They stayed under rocks until they could get something built. When they did build cabins they was log and the roof on them was old clapboards.My father learnt me how to make clapboards."

About the year 1760, Benjamin and Jeremiah Carpenter were young boys growing up on the outer fringes of the frontier in Western Virginia. The Indians, by then pushed west of the Blue Ridge, were nervous about the advancing whites, and peace between the two peoples was unreliable and at times nonexistent. Ernie tells his family's story of how his great-great-grandfather, Jeremiah, and a neighbor boy adventured too far into the wildwoods one day and were jumped by an Indian hunting party.

Ernie tells the story of how Jeremiah was captured by the Indians when he was twelve years of age, along with a Holcomb boy. And taken to the Indian Village, the Holcomb boy was killed by the Indians, but Jeremiah was saved because of a young Indian maid who begged for his life. Jeremiah and the Holcomb boy were captured by a small band of Shawnee from the Ohio country, and taken to a Village called "Old Town" in Ohio. Jeremiah escaped from this Village when he was about 18 or 19. And returned to his family.

The family stories say that two brothers, Benjamin and Jeremiah, and their families came from Ole Virginia in the late 1700's, carrying their belongings on their backs of oxen. They followed creeks and valley paths through the wilderness until they reached what is now Centrailia, near the Braxton-Webster county line. They thought it was the prettiest place they had ever seen, with clear rushing waters and tall trees. They became substantial landholders in this part of the Elk Valley and on nearby Holly River. "My great-great-grandfather and his family once owned just about all of Holly River," Ernie relates. "He traded it off for a horse and saddle, a mountain rifle and bear dog."

Ernie tells about how the brother of Jeremiah was killed by two Indians at his cabin. The Indians then captured Benjamin's wife and scalped her.

When Jeremiah came home and found his brother and sister-in-law he went to get his wife, who was with child at the time, and went up the Laurel Creek to hide from the Indians in case they came back. They waded in the creek so not to leave footprints for the Indians to track. They waded up to the mouth of Camp Run, and then another mile above that to a large rock that hung out, like a big ledge, they called them shelf rocks. They hid under that shelf rock, and here Solomon (Solly) Carpenter was born, the first white child born in Braxton county. That [fiddle tune] "Shelvin' rock" come from the camp rock that my great-grandfather Solly was borne under.

Another story relates to Jeremiah's wife, having to go get the cows in for the night, and how she hid the children under the floor of the cabin and then she went to search for the cows. They had gotten themselves across the Laurel Creek, and she had to go across to get them. After she had gotten across the creek, a sudden downpour of rain caused the Creek to raise almost out of it's banks. It rained so hard she had to take shelter, and wait until the storm passed. She knew how to swim, but in such a fast and furious water, she knew she could never make it across again.

But her children were alone and she had to get back to them. So she herded the cows into the creek, and then the bull, she grabbed the tail of the bull and let him carry her across. She got the cows back home, and when she got back to the cabin, found her children were just fine. Ernie tells a lot better story, but this gives you an idea what a woman had to do back in the early settlements of this country.

Also about the time when his grt. great grandfather Jeremiah tracked down the big elk,and killed it for their food. Being a extra large elk and to heavy for him to carry over land, he had to find another way to get it back to the cabin. So he skinned the elk, and out of the hide made a canoe which he could float the meat back up to the cabin. He waded the water pushing the elk hide canoe in front of him back to the cabin, which was about twenty miles from where he finally got the elk.

He also tells of the first Christmas tree in Braxton and how it saved them from a band of Indians who had hidden and planned to attack them before they could return to their cabins. He tells that this was when his great-grandfather Solly Carpenter was a young boy. Solly had heard of a Christmas tree, but had never seen one, so Jeremiah found one of the largest pines standing on top of a hill, he took two pieces of wood made it like a cross, and tied them together, and put tallow on it, beef tallow, to make it burn fast and bigger. They took the cross to the top of that tall pine, and tied it on. That evening everyone in the village gathered at the site of the pine to see the Christmas tree. While they were all on top of the hill, a band of Indians had come upon the empty cabins. The Indians went on the look of the people, and when they saw them all standing on top of the hill, they made plans to hide in the rocks at the bottom of the hill, and when they came down they would surprise them and kill them all. Well to make a longer story a little shorter to tell. After dark they lite that cross, and it did burn, fast and bigger, and bigger until it caught the whole top of that big pine on fire. It finally burned itself though the top, and rolled right down that big pine tree, and right on down toward them Indians hiding in the rocks.The Indians thought that something from the sky was coming after them. They were so scared they run off and never bothered one of the village people. A good many years later, when Solly was a young man, he went hunting in the woods, and heard a terrible scream. He went toward the sounds, and found this young Indian boy, who had killed a deer and had it shouldered up and a panther was attacking him for the meat. Solly shot the panther and carried the young Indian boy back to his cabin in the hope that he could be saved, he was badly injured. Well the Indian improved a little, and told Solly about the Christmas tree, and how they had planned on killing them all. Sad to say the Indian did not survive his wounds and Solly took him out and buried him.

Ernie, tells of the respect he has for the Indian people, and how they just wanted to be left alone in their woods, and fought for their homes just like you or I would if someone threaten to take away your homelands.

And he said, "My people are kind of turned like the Indians. They like to live out where it's quiet, off to themselves where they got privacy. That was the nature of the Indian, you know. He wanted to be out in the woods."

Later on, when the country was more settled, Solly Carpenter once witnessed the death of a raftsman on Elk River.

They used to hew out what they called gunwales. They would hew them out of very large trees and they'd just hew two sides of them flat, you know, like hewing a cross tie. They would hew them things out 30,40,50,60 feet long and would float them into Charleston." When they put a couple of them together, they made a good-sized raft. They made barge gunwales out of them for freight barges.

There was a fellow by the name of Gibson had made a couple of those gunwales, and he was going to float them to Charleston. He would not listen when grt. grandfather,told him,"that big of a gunwales was to much for one man to handle, there was a shoal down here that you're going through." It was a short shoal, but it was very rough. The name of the shoal was Breechclout, and it was the next little shoal below Stony Creek. He said back to my great-grandfather, "I don't thank God Almighty for advice on this river, I know all about it." He said, "I'll eat my supper in Sutton , or in hell!" that's just the words he repeated to my great-grandfather." Well he did not say much more to Solly for he hit a huge rock in that shoal, and it threw him off into the river, and he drowned. From that time on many spook stories were told about that place.

Ernie goes on to tell one of the spook Stories, that shook him up a little, sort of scared him after he saw something that he knowed nothing about.His grandfather and his brother, his great-uncle, went fishing, and they took Ernie along with them, mostly to catch bait. They went up there to the mouth of Stony Creek, where all them spook stories have been told about,to fish. They started up that creek, and near a large rock he looked up the creek and saw some honey bees, watering in a little puddle of water. His grt.-uncle knew when he saw them honey bees watering there was a bee tree around close. So they went to find the honey tree. After they had walked a ways he saw a man and he looked like he had on long underwear. He was just moving like slow motion towards us, coming down that creek. His uncle was standing right there by me, looking up that creek, and he never did see that! He never saw that at all. More on this story found in the "Tales of the Elk.River"

Ernie recalls the time his uncle Jake "Squack" Carpenter got spooked into getting a dunking near this same place on the river.

Another good story by Ernie, about his uncle who caught a big pike fish, and how even tho he got himself dunked into the river, the fish never got away.

Ernie's grandfather William "Squirrelly Bill" Carpenter and his exploits are legendary around Braxton County. Brady Randolph, octogenarian and longtime county newspaper editor, said of William, "Elk River and its surrounding streams, fields, and woods were his transportation, his livelihood, and his play -ground." Ernie remembers that his grandfather never wore shoes, but stuck to moccasins in the style of the old settlers. Author William Byrne wrote in Tale of the Elk that, "Squirrelly was an all-around fisherman, a canoe builder and operator, flatboat builder, and steersman, raftsman and general waterdog and fisherman; he was the most inveterate, persistent and uncompromising fisherman ever known in the valley of Elk."

Ernie: My grandfather made canoes and sold them. They got a dollar a foot. they would build these canoes and then take them down to Charleston and sell them. He tells of the two boys who bought two of these canoes, one was a new one and the other was a used one. The boys got into a fight over who got the new one. And few days later, his grandfather came back up the river and saw the canoe setting there cut in two down the middle. He found out later that those two boys had got into a fight and the one sawed it in two. There it was, not worth a cent to nobody.

Sutton was just a village, but there were two or three general stores there and they would give Ernie's grandfather an order for what they wanted. So his grandfather would go down the Elk river to Charleston and get the orders. He explains how many men it usually took to take them big raft type boats down the river, and if the weather was bad how they stayed at certain houses along the way until the weather improved.Sometimes it would take them a few weeks to return from Charleston.

His grandfather, had an instinct for the country side, and Ernie tells of the time that his father, Shelt Carpenter, and Jehu Carpenter his uncle, and his grandfather went on a fishing trip, and how his grandfather saved them all from camping under a huge old dead chestnut tree. He told them to move the camp, since that ole tree was about to come down right on them. They did not believe him, but moved to the camp, and of course the old gentleman was right and about an hour or so later down it fell right where the camp had been located shortly before. Good thing they listened to him and moved that camp or some of them would have surely been killed or injured. When they went on these fishing and camping trips they always took along a special friend of theirs whose name was, Bill Thomas. That Bill was an extra good cook and they took him along to do the cooking for them.

Ernie's grandfather had a gallon bucket almost full of dirt and fish worms. Fish worms was a prize,in them days. That was your bait. His grandfather had this gallon bucket all fixed up to keep them fish worms for four or five days they were going to be camping. In taking the stuff out of the boat, somebody got accidently got the bucket out of the boat along with the other camping equipment. When they made their coffee, they used an open bucket. In those days you just dipped that bucket into the creek or right out of the Elk River, it was good clean water in those days, better than the water we drink today. Well when it was time to get set up for breakfast, Bill Thomas who had gotten up way before day light,and the only light was an old oil lantern scooped up that bucket of worms, thinking it was his bucket to make coffee, and dipped it into the river for some water, and put it on the fire with some coffee in it, When breakfast was ready and someone said, "Pour the coffee." Well somebody took a look at it and said, "What in the world's in this coffee?" His grand -father just raised up and said, "My God, you've got my fish worm bucket and boiled my fish worms!"

Ernie's grandfather learned to play the fiddle when he was very young. In later years he would go and play for the log rollings, and dances. Ernie tells, "They'd send horses for miles, when they'd have one of these log rollings, and get him to play for that log rolling and dance. The boy that brought the horse would walk, and he would ride the horse. The next day they brought him back the same way. A man that played the music in that day and time was really something special." The fiddle that Ernie played was his grandfather's, it was passed down from one generation to the next, Ernie did not say who owned the fiddle originally, but that it had passed down many times from Uncles, cousins, his grandfather, father and then finally to him.

Ernie's father worked in the lumber woods almost all his life, and also farmed. Ernie was born on the farm which was located about three miles above Sutton. His mother dyeing when Ernie was about ten years old or close to that time. He does not say what caused his mothers death, but his father raised the children by himself. His father did not own a sawmill, but he had a fellow that did his sawing for him and then he would hew ties for the B & O Railroad. Ernie says, "At one time, he cut about all the poles in this area for Monongahela Power and Bell Telephone. They were chestnut only, so when the chestnut timber all died they could not get no more poles in this part of the country, so they started getting those creosote pine poles."

When Ernie was about ten years old, his father would take Ernie with him and he would put Ernie on the lower end of a log, this way his father could pull the saw back toward him and it would almost go by itself downhill. Ernie says, "you know. About all I had to do was keep it straight." There was a lot of danger in doing this, but Ernie's father knew all about the danger and always made sure of his sons safety, by having him move to the upper side of the log before it was sawed clear though.

When his father and the boys went to log, they had to cross the river and he had marked a special place on the bank to show where the river could be crossed, the water here was low enough for the horses. Ernie remembers on one of these trips, the river had rose, and the marker clearly showed that he water was a bit too high. But his father was behind in his logging and had to get work done. He sent Ernie and his brother, both riding on one horse across the river, well the horse finding the water too high lost his footing and off went the boys into the high river. His father seeing this, threw his axe off to the bank of the river, jumped from his horse and into the river.His father was a tall man over six foot, so he waded out to the boys and took them back to shore. The horse was standing out in the river, just nickering and pawing at the water, when Ernie's father called to the horse he came right back to the shore. Although this was an exciting but adventure and probably even a little frighting, no one was hurt, and when evening came and the work was done, his father told the boys," "You fellows go around by Sutton." That was about a five-mile trip down to Sutton and back up Ernie's side of the river. He didn't try to ford it any more when the water was at that stage.

Although Ernie had to give up his education at an early age to work with his father, he accepts the fact that it was necessary to help support the family after his mother's death. The six children cared for one another and stayed together as a family until they were old enough to get married. Mabel in 1930, his father Shelt lived with them on the old homeplace until his death in 1937.

Ernie worked the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company in Clarksburg for 38 years before retiring back in Braxton County in 1972. During his years in Clarksburg, he made regular weekend stays at the homeplace on Elk River. It was during this period that Ernie witnessed the planning and building of the Sutton Dam by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers. This flooding of his old home and boyhood surroundings was a bitter experience.

When they started surveying for the dam it was not long before they started buying up the land, and of course Ernie's property was right in the way of that dam. They offered him twenty five dollars and acre, and nothing for his apple orchard. He also has a house, barn and outbuilding, Ernie says," The house wasn't anything fancy, but it was livable. We lived there."

They offered him two dollars an acre for his oil and gas, and

"You tell them that the men that come up here to set me out won't be going back on their own. Somebody will have to come and get them." Of course he finally had to leave the old homeplace, and build somewhere else as close by as he could find. They cut off the road to his old place, so he would go down Bee Hill and up the river, they found out what he was doing, so they cut off that road. This did not stop Ernie, he went over to Hyre, over to Newville and down the river, and they finally cut him off from going back to his old homeplace that way. Ernie would drive out to the top of the hill and walk down the hill to his place when no one was around, He then would go down and tear down his house piece by piece, and he took it back to his new place and built his new house out of part of the old house.

Down though the generations Ernie says that their music always played an important role in their lives. The Carpenters had passed down their music for generations. His brother, Carl Carpenter played the guitar, and Goldie the banjo, and Ernie played the old fiddle. His music was influenced mainly by his father, and grandfather William. Their music is still cherished by Ernie, tunes such as "Betty Baker," "Yew Piney Mountain." "Ole Sledge," "Shelvin' Rock".

Ernie says, another contributor of these older, special tunes was "Uncle Jack" McElwain, who Ernie states" was the best fiddle player I ever heard." Wallace Pritchard, a neighbor and family friend, also taught Ernie tunes as a boy.

Many of the people of the area gathered together to hear the music at the wood alcohol plant near Sutton, Ernie remembers many of the Calhoun County musicians stopping by to play their music. He remembers one old gentleman, called George Hammons, he would come and stay with people for sometimes a week or so and play, he would walk there in the springtime , carrying all his possessions with him, from Clay county,where he tended cattle for someone in the winter.

When Ernie went into the service, and for a period lasting nearly twenty years, he stopped playing his fiddle music. He tells in the "Tales of the Elk River" how he started back to playing after all this time. And how the song "Golden Slippers", stirred up the music down deep inside him again. If you have ever heard them

"Golden Slippers" played on a good ole fiddle, then you would understand just how Ernie felt when he heard the Propst boy playing that song for the people down at Sutton.

When Ernie finally got that fiddle down off the closet shelf, he was really scared at what he found. The ole fiddle was covered with a white mold all over it from one end to the other. But after a careful cleaning up by Ernie, it was back to it's old self again, and fit to play. So Ernie started back with his first love his fiddle playing, and has many tunes about the wilds of Braxton county, most of them have been recorded and are now available for us to enjoy for many more generations to come.

DEATH: place
Per the Find a Grave obit he died aty Hear Court hospital on 14 Oct 1918.
The 88th Infantry division headquarters indicates that they were at Alontreaux Chateau, Haute-Alsace on 15 October 1918.
And the American Forces used French maps or copies there of.
And places once were in German and after World War I they took French names. And some were modified or adapted over the next century of so.
And Americans often buthered the French place names.
Alsace has been traded back and forth between Germany and France 5 times until France retook it in 1919.
It was called "Upper Alsace" aka southern Alsace since rivers flow northward in this region. Today is is know as the Haut-Rhin Department of the Grand Est region of France. It borders Germany.
Alontreaux Chateau or Alontreauz Castle or Fort maybe a non-fortified place no longer. We find no mention of such Chauteau on line.

WIKIPEDIA:
Haut-Rhin is the smaller and less populated of the two departments of the former administrative Alsace region, the other being the Bas-Rhin (Lower Rhine). Especially after the 1871 cession of the southern territory known since 1922 as Territoire de Belfort, although it is still densely populated compared to the rest of metropolitan France.

COMMENT: A fellow 313th Enginer soldier kept a diary during the time Carpenter was in France. The following provides information that is related.
The 88th Division was a National Army Division that was created late in the war on September 4, 1917, with men coming from Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota. Later a majority of men were from Missouri or Nebraska. Training largely took place at Camp Dodge, Iowa. During the time period between July 25, 1918, and September 4, 1918, the division moved to France. The first few weeks in France the division was trained for open warfare as part of the First Army, 6th American Corps. The 88th Division's first major assignment was to relieve the 29th American Division at the Haute-Alsace Sector, so that they could take part in the Meuse-Argonne offensive. When the 88th Division left the area on September 14, 1918, they were transferred to the 7th American Army Corps. From September 23, 1918, to November 1, 1918, the 88th Division held the Center Sector of Haute-Alsace. At times they held the line by themselves, at other times they had help from French troops. From September 20, 1918, to October 12, 1918, the division suffered from an epidemic of influenza and pneumonia, resulting in 444 deaths.
MORE:
Whittlesey's voyage to France is described in some detail. On August 15, 1918, he boarded HMHS Plassy, which was originally a hospital ship. HMHS Plassy took Whittlesey to Liverpool, England, where he landed on August 28, 1918. From Liverpool he took a train to Southampton where he boarded USS Yale and crossed the channel for France on September 1, 1918.

Whittlesey did also write about a short period where he suffered from pneumonia.

September 23, 1918, to November 1, 1918 On September 23,, 1918, advanced elements of the 88th Division moved into the Center Sector of Haute-Alsace, which was being temporarily held by the 38th French Division that had relieved the 29th American Division. These advanced elements, totaling eight officers and four hundred men, were augmented until on October 7, 1918,
Division headquarters of the 88th Division was moved to Alontreaux Chateau, Haute-Alsace; and on October 15, 1918, the command of the Center Sector of Haute-Alsace passed from the 38th French Division to the 88th American Division, which formed part of the 40th French Army Corps of the VII French Army, while remaining under the VII American Army Corp; for administrative purposes.
To reach the sector, the infantry and engineers of the Division had been forced to make long marches—sometimes 25 kilometers a day—on congested roads, pulling with them their heavily loaded machine gun carts, combat and field wagons, in cases the average weight pulled per man being 250 pounds.
Furthermore, the Division had been forced to go without essential supplies, because all available transportation was being used to the maximum in the Argonne drive.
On arrival in France, the Division had been required to turn in all its field ranges, overcoats, and all except one blanket per man; and means of cooking had to be improvised, or secured by purchase from the French or by the utilization of small French stoves in billets, supplemented by the extensive use of camp kettles and water cans.
Until October 6, 1918, there were only two ambulances in the Division—and they had to serve the French troops in the area also.
Meantime, on September 20, 1918, a wide-spread epidemic of influenza set in. and in eight days there were 1,370 cases in one regiment alone. This epidemic increased until October 14, 1918, on which date there were eighty deaths. All told there were 6,845 cases of influenza and 1,041 cases of pneumonia reported, from which 444 deaths resulted.

Pete emigrated from Sweden to the United States with his parents in May of 1908 on the ship Lusitania.

When Sven came back home after his first day of school in the first grade in Kansas, he was crying. His mother asked him what was wrong. He said that the teacher asked everyone what their name was, and he said (with a Swedish accent): "Sven Gusta Julius (the 'J' is silent)". That was way too Swedish for them so they decided to call him "Pete". He has been known as Pete ever since.

Thank you for all you're doing, if I can help in anyway, please let me know. I've been dabbling at genealogy for a few years now. I don't know if I told you how I got hooked on genealogy, but here it is: My grandmother Irma Maxine (Yoder) Carpenter asked me if I could get the family bible recovered. Before I took it to the bookbinder, I made copies of all the names and dates that were in it and wondered why there were so many Carpenters in what I thought was the Yoder family bible. When I was told it was my great-grandmother Allee's bible, I was hooked. I'm not sure who has the bible now, but I still have my copies!
Again, thank you!!
Thanks,
Julie Carpenter

Wanda Fayne Moore

GRAVE: images
Wanda Fayne Moore Carpenter
Birth: 27 Oct 1927
Death: 5 Mar 2015 (aged 87)
Burial: Memory Gardens of the Valley, Weatherford, Parker County, Texas, USA
Memorial #: 143361688
Bio:
WEATHERFORD -- Wanda Moore Carpenter, 87, of Weatherford, went peacefully to be with the Lord, her husband, Curtis, and other loved ones Thursday, March 5, 2015, at her home.
Interment: Memory Gardens of the Valley, Weatherford.
Wanda was born October 27, 1927 in Paducah, daughter of Lawrence and Gertrude Grace Moore. She graduated from Paducah High School and moved to attend and graduated from a Business School in Fort Worth. Wanda married Curtis Carpenter in 1950, and they had many happy years together raising their family. They settled in Weatherford, a town she would call home for the next 65 years.
Wanda worked for Mutual Building and Loan Association for 42 years, first as a loan officer and retiring as Vice President. When she retired, she continued to make friends through her involvement in her church. She loved square dancing, line dancing, bridge, most recently bingo, and many other activities to keep her mind sharp and her feet moving. Some days you could even find her sitting on a bench at the local grocery store, just to say "Hi" to the people. To put it mildly, she loved people. Most importantly of all, she loved spending time with her family.

Wanda was a sharp dressed woman, who kept her hair appointment every week. To Wanda, it didn't matter how you felt, it only mattered how you looked, and if you looked good, the rest of the world wouldn't know any better. A little secret: her jet black hair was natural, she never let an ounce of hair dye get near her locks.
She was preceded in death by her husband, Curtis; her parents; her sister, Joyce Moore Hamilton; her brother-in-law, Kenneth "Poss" Hamilton; and her son-in-law, Rodney L. Coffey.
Survivors: Children, Carla Carpenter Coffey of Weatherford, Larry and Denise Carpenter of Willow Park and Scott and Sonya Carpenter of San Antonio; grandchildren, Curt and Mandi Coffey, of Rockwall, Cara Coffey of San Antonio, Caitlan Coffey of Weatherford, Colt and Shannon Bearden of Arlington, Ryan and Elayne Carpenter of Weatherford and Cassie and Mikaela Carpenter of San Antonio; great-grandchildren, Todd and Kate Jolley of Rockwall, Emma and Maya Coffey of Rockwall, and Bryson Carpenter of Weatherford; niece, Kena Hamilton; nephew, Kevin Hamilton; and many other loving family members and friends.

Irene M. Carpenter Ellis
Birth: Dec. 26, 1908
Platte County
Missouri, USA
Death: May 19, 1979
Irene M. Carpenter was one of two children born to Zenith Alvis Carpenter and his first wife Effie Maude Collins, the daughter of Harrison C. Collins and Ann Eliza Herndon from Platte County, MO. Zenith and Effie married Feb 16, 1908 in the home of Will Herndon (a relative). Effie belonged to the 'Little Platte Singing Class' held at the Little Platte Baptist Church near Edgerton and thus we were lucky enough to find a photo of her from around the time she married. After their 2nd child Marguerite Carpenter was born Jan 30 1911 two major events happened. Effie (Collins) Carpenter's mother died April 28, 1912 and Effie herself succumbed just 5 months later on Sept 21, 1912, leaving two young toddlers. Effie died from complications following an operation (locked bowel) complicated by a ruptured tube pregnancy. She had been under treatment for 2 mos from the ruptured tube pregnancy problems. but was treated after an operation for 10 days before death at 8 am. Death Cert #29674 Jackson Co MO.
Zenith Alvis Carpenter became a widower with two young toddlers. He remarried on June 10, 1914 Myrtle Seuell who became stepmother to the two girls from the first marriage. Together Zenith and 2nd wife had an additional nine children and left Platte Co MO for Westphalia, Kansas where he farmed.
Irene M Carpenter, eldest child of Zenith Alvis Carpenter married first, Merrell Simmons born 1905 in Brookport, Illinois, the son of Oddie Amazar Simmons and Maggie Taylor. Merrell had had a previous marriage 11 May 1925 to Hazel Wilkins (divorced by 1929 and she remarried Harold Harter). This was Merrell's 2nd marriage. Second wife Irene and Merrell Simmons had two children, Merrelene Simmons and John Merrell Simmons. Irene and her first husband Merrell Simmons divorced in 1940 in Dade County, Florida. Irene M (Carpenter) Simmons remarried George L. Ellis.

John, I received a copy of the Zenith Alvis Carpenter family papers also. There is a good chance that he is the son of William Russell Carpenter and Mary Angelina Alvis. William being a son of Zenith and Cynthia Hendricks Carpenter. I am in contact with a family member and soon hope for confirmation. It all appears logical, but proof needed. Mary Angelina was a daughter of Thomas H. Alvis, Sr. and and Mary Elizabeth Moore. Angelina and her husband William Russell Carpenter are buried in the McComas Cem., Platte Co., MO where Zenith and Cynthia lived after Hardin Co., TN.

Subject: RE: Errors regarding Franklyn Glenn Carpenter (39223 -188882)
Hello again John,
I've run into a roadblock regarding Martha May Carpenter, born 21 April 1880. I don't know from where, but I have a DOD of 20 Sep 1880. If she died at the age of 4 months, she couldn't have been married to William Luther. I can't find a death record or a grave. I do have her sister Aurelia Adalade as being married to a

William Henry Luther and John Duzan.
Any help resolving this will be greatly appreciated!
Thanks,
Julie
REPLY:
Julia,
Regarding Martha May Carpenter-242518 born 21 Apr 1880. I have no documentation of death or marriage.
Per the 1900 US Census, her mother Ellen has 3 children living of 7 she gave birth to.
We know that Allee S C-242498 was alive and with her parents in 1900.
Charles A. C-242509 died in 1965 thus alive in 1900.
Aurelia A. C-242642 died in 1962 thus she too was alive in 1900.
By default then, Marth M. C-242518 was deceased before the 1900 US Census.
Is it possible Martha married? Yes, but there is no proof. The same for children.
However, it is more likely she died young.
JRC

Subject: CARPENTER ANCESTORS - Children of 3530 Lucinda Carpenter TUDOR

Hello,
My mother-in-law is a great grand daughter of Lucinda Carpenter and Jason Tudor.
Her grand-mother Margaret Ann Tudor Adams is not listed on the Carpenter site as their child, nor is her brother Samuel Marcus Tudor, just her little sister Grace.

Attached is some documentation regarding the 2 children not listed to help you correct the Carpenter cousin's website.
- Marriage of Lucinda Carpenter with Jason Walker TUDOR on 6-Jan-1870(which you probably already have).
Lucinda and Jason got a divorce, but I don't have any information on the dates. If you have any, I would greatly appreciate it

- Death certificate of Margaret Tudor Adams - daughter of Lucinda Carpenter and Jason Tudor.
Margaret married George Washington ADAMS on 27-Aug-1896 in Madison Co., KY.
(George Washington Adams b: 7-Feb-1866 in Estill Co., KY and died on 15-Oct-1904 in Madison Co., KY)

- Death Certificate of Margaret Tudor Adams' son George Jason Adams (my mother-in-law's father)

- Marriage of my mother-in-law's parents that includes the names of the groom's parents (G.W Adams and Margaret Tudor)

- 2 Census of 1880 a) with Jason Tudor and 2 children Samuel and Maggie; b) Just Lucinda and daughter Grace

- Marriage of Samuel Marcus Tudor son of Jason Tudor and Lucinda Carpenter in 1923. I don't know if this was his 1st or second marriage.

After reviewing the information on the site, I am a bit confused regarding 244. Zophar Carpenter (Robert , Nathaniel , Joseph , William ) was born about 1733 in North Castle, Westchester, NY. He died on 6 Feb 1798 in Madison, Garrard, KY.

Do I understand correctly that his parents were doubly cousins:
- Through their grand-fathers 14. Capt. Nathaniel Carpenter (Joseph , William) and 18. Capt. Benjamin Carpenter (Joseph , William) who were half-brothers and
- Through their mother's who were sisters (Tamar and Mercy Coles) ?

I had not seen the information regarding Elizabeth Twin A before. Is this relatively new and is there documentation available ?

Many thanks.

Kind regards,
Suzette Tudor

He married and had at least one son.

10104. Ernest William Carpenter

2b2f5. Ernest W. Carpenter, born c1912, married by c1940 to Thelma _?_, who was born c1914 in AR, with whom he was enumerated in Vicksburg, Warren Co. MS in 1940 with no children yet born to them -- he was annotated as an implement salesman with two years of college education ... Terry L. Carpenter

Ernest William Carpenter, Sr., born in Hamburg, AR. I don't know who my grandfather's parents were, but had heard that they raised 13 kids together, and lived in Hamburg. My grandfather was killed by a drunk driver near Monroe, LA, while driving home from church in 1952. He graduated from Northeast Louisiana University with a degree in Agriculture, and had an International Harvester dealership. CWC
MORE:
My grandfather's occupation/education: I believe it's an error. He was stated to have owned and operated an International Harvester dealership, having brought in his brother(s) to the business. As for being identified as an implement salesman, I found a copy of the census record for his block in Vicksburg on the internet, and all his neighbors are doctors and lawyers. How many salesmen lived in neighborhoods like that during the Great Depression?
Chris W. Carpenter
Ft. Worth, TX

MORE: From TLC
The 1940 census shows Ernest's and Thelma's neighbors on either side as a grocer, a saleswoman, a salesman, and a dry cleaning checker in the two households preceding their entry, and a bookkeeper, a welder and a doctor's office attendant in the two following. Thelma is working as a retail dry goods saleswoman. There's one doctor and one lawyer on the same page. It seems to be a neighborhood of mixed trade and professional people. International Harvester was primarily an agricultural equipment manufacturer, which would include implements, so implement salesman may have been where he got his start, before he acquired the dealership. 9752. Alexander L. "Alec" Carpenter

Alexander L. Carpenter was born 5 Nov 1834 in Yancey Co, NC in the area that later became Mitchell County (in 1861) and finally Avery County (in 1911). I don't know who Alexander might have been named for, nor what his middle initial of "L" stands for.

Alexander was apparently home with his parents for the 1840 census, and with them in 1850.

Alexander Carpenter married Kesiah Vance on 2 Apr 1857 in Watauga Co, NC. She was a daughter of Flemming and Ellender Vance.

Alexander and family were in Watauga Co, NC for the 1860 census.

9753. William N. Carpenter

Really need the 2 children cited in FaG.

Unknown ancestry

William N. Carpenter was born ca 1835/36 in Yancey Co, NC in the area that later became Mitchell County (in 1861) and finally Avery County (in 1911).

William was apparently with his parents for the 1840 census, and was with them in 1850.

William married Mary Wise on 1 Apr 1862 in Mitchell Co, NC. However, this date seems to contradict the fact that they already appeared to be married, and together on the 1860 census. It is possible that he was married to another woman named Mary, prior to Mary Wise. She was listed as "Mrs" on the marriage record, possibly indicating she was widowed from a Mr. Wise.

There was a curious marriage record in Burke County in 1860. On 6 Mar 1860, a "William Carpenter" obtained a marriage bond in Burke County to marry "Lousind Stamy". That is probably a badly misspelled "Lucinda", or possibly "Louisa". If her name was also "Mary", then that may be who is with William on the 1860 census. They did appear to be newlyweds, and to add to this, William's sister Sophia Carpenter married George Stamey in 1859 Yancey County. This could be a case of two siblings marrying two other siblings.

Regarding the Stamy / Stamey family, there were none in Yancey County in 1850, but the closest was in neighboring Caldwell County and several in neighboring Burke. None of those had a daughter "Mary" or "Lucinda" or anything close. Nor a son George. The next nearest ones were in Lincoln and Haywood County. None of those matched up either.

William and Mary were listed on the 1860 census in Yancey County, next to his parents.

Assuming that "Mary" of 1860 is a different person than "Mrs. Mary Wise" who William married in 1862, then that means the first Mary died before 1862.

Mary Wise Carpenter also apparently died in the 1860's in Mitchell County. I'm not at all sure if I have the spouses sorted out properly or not, so keep that in mind. One of the Mary's (assuming they are different people) was the mother of Thomas Carpenter, born ca 1862.

William was back home with his parents for the 1870 census. He had his young son Thomas living with him.

William apparently married his cousin Margaret Elizabeth Carpenter in the 1870/73 timeframe. She was a child of Samuel Carpenter. She was listed on the 1870 census with two children, and it seems like she was a widow, or perhaps single mother, since her kids were listed as "Carpenter" in 1870.

In addition to her parents and her husband she was preceded in death by a brother, B.K. Carpenter.

Irma was a faithful and devoted member of the Charleston Bible Church. She was actively involved in many of its ministries including the Phoebe Women's Fellowship Group and the Awana Youth Group. For many years she served as church treasurer, meticulously making sure that every penny was accounted for.

Irma cherished her role as a homemaker as well as her family - each and every one of them. She was a wonderful cook and took hospitality to a new level. The door to her home was always open - not only to friends and family but also to others as she and Vernon often invited missionaries to stay with them. Irma enjoyed being with Vernon often helping him on their Cumberland County farm or traveling with him when it was time to take the hogs to market. Her unique ability to keep things organized resulted in an orderly household where she kept things running smoothly.

The love and affection which was generously showered upon her family was always given unconditionally and her generosity, kindness and contagious smile created for her a multitude of friends. Irma always remembered to give thanks to God for her many blessings and was a woman who lived her life as a role model for others - devoting herself to her faith, her family and her friends. She enriched the lives of all who knew and loved her. (Adams Funeral Chapel Aug/2007)

Yet, he always found time to help others; often and generously using his carpentry skills in assisting others in building homes for their families. Vernon served with the United States Navy aboard the USS Belleau Wood during World War II. He was employed with Garwood Industries for twelve years, U.S.I. for five years and Eastern Illinois University as a Stationary Fireman for twenty-five years. For the past four months, he resided at Hilltop Convalescent Center of Charleston, where he was loved by everyone. His legacy of love for his family, church and friends will inspire memories for their lifetimes. Vernon's family requests that memorials in his honor be made to the Bible Center Church of Charleston. Memorials may be made at the service or visitation, or mailed to Adams Funeral Chapel, 2330 Shawnee Drive, Charleston, IL 61920.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, Bill and Cora Carpenter, her husband Frank B. Hodges, a brother Bill "B.K." Carpenter, and two sisters, Irma Rice and Martha Bennett. Also preceding her in death was an ex-husband Pud Clayton, sisters-in-law Iris Carpenter and Arlene Hodges, brothers-in-law Orville "Dock" Brinkley, Earl Pratt, Vernon Rice, Don Lenhart, Leroy Lashbrook, and Stan Hodges

Mary is a 1949 graduate of Charleston High School. She worked all of her life except for the past couple of years. She started at Brown Shoe Company in Charleston; in the mid 1960s she went to beauty school and became a certified beautician. She had a salon on Madison Avenue in Charleston before moving to University Drive.

When Frank retired as a chiropractor in 1984, they moved to Florida where Mary continued to work in various salons and was especially favored by many of the Floridian "Snowbirds."

During World War II, Frank B. Hodges was a Merchant Mariner. When they moved to Florida, Frank became a charter member of the Southwest Florida Chapter of the American Merchant Marine Veterans (AMMV) which conducted 10 luncheon meetings per year. After he turned 80, he quit driving and Mary chauffeured him to the meetings and ate with the group. After Frank died in 2009, Mary continued to attend the luncheons and as a widow of a Merchant Mariner was elected to the presidency, a position she held for seven years and was forced to retire in 2016 by the cancer which eventually caused her to "cross the bar" as the Merchant Mariners describe death.

She was an avid bowler and once introduced to the game joined two leagues a week and often competed in the WIBC national tournaments.

She had a tremendous sense of humor and will be dearly missed by her friends and relatives.

A memorial service will be held in Charleston, Illinois at a later date. Mary was cremated and her cremains were taken to the coordinates on the Gulf of Mexico where Frank's cremains were taken previously.

A local memorial service is set for 11 a.m. Saturday, January 28, 2017 at Good Shepherd United Methodist Church in North Fort Myers, FL.

9751. Jacob "Jake" Carpenter

Jacob Carpenter was born 4 Jan 1833 in Yancey Co, NC in the area that later became Mitchell County (in 1861) and finally Avery County (in 1911).

Jacob was probably named for his grandfather, Jacob Carpenter.

Jacob was known in his later years as "Uncle Jake" and is most famous for his diary, recording he deaths of his relatives and other neighbors, now referred to as "Uncle Jake Carpenter's Anthology of Death on Three Mile Creek", or just as his "Anthology of Death".

Jacob was apparently home with his parents for the 1840 census, and was with them in 1850 in Yancey Co, NC.

Jacob married Evaline Pyatte in Yancey Co, NC on 15 Mar 1855. She was a child of Joseph Pyatte Jr and Jean Brooks. Evaline's brother Leander Pyatte was married to Frances Matilda Carpenter, Jacob's Aunt.

Jacob and family were listed on the 1860 census in Yancey County, NC between his cousin Alfred Carpenter and his grandmother Margaret, widow of Jacob Sr. Jacob's parents were just three houses away.

Three Mile
Avery County
North Carolina, USA
He was born January 4, 1833 on Three Mile Creek, N.C. and at the age of 22, married Evaline Pyatte. Jacob Carpenter II, affectionately called Uncle Jake, is a well known man in this area of western North Carolina because of a type of diary he kept, which is now known as "Uncle Jake Carpenter's Anthology of Death." Jake called it his "Son-of-a-Gun Book" or his "Jot-em-down-Book." It was a red-backed account ledger where Jake noted when someone in the local area died. He would write the person's name, date of death and a brief note about the deceased. From 1845 until 1920 he recorded the deaths of many of the local citizens with his limited knowledge of spelling or grammar.

12554. Lenora Edna Burdette

AUNT LENORA WHO I ALWAYS CALLED "AUNT SNORE", SHE WAS LIKE A SISTER TO ME, & WAS A GREAT LADY. SHE SUFFERED A HEART ATTACK WHILE TALKING ON THE PHONE TO HER SISTER, DORTHEA (BURDETTE) MARTIN, MY MOTHER. I LOVED HER DEARLY AND WILL MISS HER ALWAYS.

William Brian Sole

UNCLE BILL, WAS MY FAVORITE, HE WAS A SHY MAN, AND BLUSHED VERY EASY. HE WOULD TURN SCARLET RED WHEN YOU TEASED HIM. HE COULD MAKE HIS EARS GO UP AND DOWN AND BACK AND FORTH, AND USED TO DO THIS FOR US CHILDREN ALL THE TIME. HE HAD THE MOST BEAUTIFUL SMILE I HAVE EVER SEEN ON ANY PERSON. HE WAS DEARLY LVED BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN, AND BY EVERYONE WHO KNEW HIM. HE WAS A FARMER, AND ALSO A WELDER. HE WAS BURIED ON MY BIRTHDAY, MAY 3, 1985.

CEMETERY:
https://www.abmc.gov/cemeteries-memorials/europe/lorraine-american-cemetery
The Lorraine American Cemetery and Memorial in France covers 113.5 acres and contains the largest number of graves of our military dead of World War II in Europe, a total of 10,482. Their headstones are arranged in nine plots in a generally elliptical design extending over the beautiful rolling terrain of eastern Lorraine and culminating in a prominent overlook feature. Most of the dead here were killed while driving the German forces from the fortress city of Metz, France toward the Siegfried Line and the Rhine River. Initially, there were over 16,000 Americans interred in the St. Avold region in France, mostly from the U.S. Seventh Army's Infantry and Armored Divisions and its cavalry groups. St. Avold served as a vital communications center for the vast network of enemy defenses guarding the western border of the Third Reich.

Death: 11 Apr 1982 (aged 93) USA
Burial: Big Meadows Missionary Baptist Church Cemetery, Newland, Avery County, North Carolina, USA
Memorial #: 54200110
Bio:
Her gnarled little hands bespoke of spinning and carding wool; of pulling galax and digging roots to help clothe the 8 sons she bore at home with only a midwife to alleviate the birth pangs.
Aunt Tempie Louisy Carpenter Ingram grew up in an era when times were hard, but she didn't complain; they raised every morsel of food for the table and " lived good " she said.
Aunt Tempie lived her final years with her son Jerry Ingram and his family in a log cabin on Buck Hill (In the 3 mile section) that is over a hundred years old.
Aunt Tempie was born at the head of Clear Creek to Will and Julie Carpenter. She married Bard Ingram when she was 20 years old and bore him 8 sons, Ralph,
Bert, Arnold, Jason, Ray, Jerry, and a set of twin boys who died in infancy.
She loved to make quilts until her eyes became to dim but was able to read her large print Bible. When asked what she considered the most important thing that ever happened in her lifetime she replied softly, " Trusting in the Lord "

Until We Meet Again

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile
if only I could have you back for just a little while
Then we could sit and talk again
just like we used to do you always meant so very much and always will too
The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain

but you're forever in my heart
until we meet again

I Love You Mom

Dear Mom:
I thought about you today,
but that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday,
and days before that too,
I think of you in silence,
I often speak your name,
all I have are memories and a picture in a frame,
your memory is a keepsake,
from which I'll never part.
God has you in his arms,
I have you in my heart

A father and his son
Are inexplicably bound,
And that bond isn't severed just Because Dad's no longer around.

A son remembers his father's words,
His wisdom and his wit.
There's never a day that ever goes by,
When the son doesn't find a use for it.

And this is how the father lives on Inside the heart of his son.
Although they were parted years ago
In this way the two live as one.

I Love You Dad....

Burial: Big Meadows Missionary Baptist Church Cemetery, Newland, Avery County, North Carolina, USA
Memorial #: 54199823
Bio:
I have some of the fondest memories of Herm and Zonie as I was growing up. My family traveled from Burke County to Avery county almost every weekend to visit kin folks. I always hated that trip up the mountain on old 181 because of the curves and switch backs in the road. I almost always got car sick and had to stop at Clarks old store for a pickle to settle my stomach. When we arrived at aunt Zonie's...everything was great...She had a big hug and most of the time had a plate of left overs sitting on the table covered up with a table cloth. I don't know if I every told these two wonderful people that I loved them....But if you guys can hear me now.....I LOVE YOU.....James L Simmons
